WINNERS IN BABY SHOW

Interesting Afternoon at Exhibition Yesterday When Announcements Were Made.

The announcement of winners and the awarding of prizes in the "Better Babies" Contest attracted a great crowd of spectators to the Exhibition Hall yesterday afternoon. There were babies of beautiful baby boys and girls which testified to the healthful conditions of Prince Rupert's very young population.

A feature of the Baby Show was the fact that there were two one hundred percent children—of these in the girls under six months class. These remarkable children were, Phillis Leveick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Leveick, and Hazel Georgina Grate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Grate.

Certificate for Entrants.

Jack Venables, fair manager, presided at the show and was assisted by W. E. Thompson, vice president of the Fair Association. As each baby's name was called the mother carrying the child came forward and was presented with a cup or spoon and a certificate. Rounds of applause greeted many. After the awarding of the prizes, certificates of the doctors noting various "points" were presented to the mothers of the babies who were not successful in coming in the first and second classes. First prizes were handsome silver cups; seconds, silver spoons.

Mrs. Robert Blance and Mrs. J. H. McMullin, representative of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, and Mrs. Donaldson, acting matron of the general hospital, assisted, also Miss Constance McMullin and Miss Lorna Tite in the distribution of certificates.

The judges were Dr. J. P. Cade, Dr. H. E. Tremayne and Mrs. Donaldson. The prize winning babies were as follows:

Girls, 24 to 36 months—1. Geraldine Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mann, aged 31 months, 96½ percent; 2. Betty Brown, daughter of Mrs. Joe Brown, aged 30 months, 95½ percent.

Boys, 24 to 36 months—1. Denny Soriano, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Soriano, aged 34 months, 96½ percent; 2. James William Gulek, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Gulek, aged 28 months, 96 percent.

Girls, 7 to 12 months—1. Lois Elsie Judge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Judge, aged 11 months, 97½ percent; 2. Nancy Bremner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bremner, aged 10½ months, 97 percent.

Boys, 7 to 12 months—1. William Victor Manson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Manson, aged 7½ months; 97 percent; William H. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Anderson, Sniller River, aged 11 months, 96½ percent.

FORTUNE WON WOOD CHOPPING CONTEST

Times Were: Fortune, 3 mins. 29 secs.; Hampton, 3 min. 45 secs.; McIntyre, 4 min. 40 secs.

The Exhibition wood chopping contest held in the Carnival grounds at Acropolis Hill yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock attracted a good deal of attention and the skill of the several local contestants with the axe who took part was watched with interest. There were two contests, the first the regular one for the exhibition prizes and the second for a side bet of $10 between Polka Zoff and T. M. J. Fortune, the winner of the main event. A life inch for the axe was used.

The Exhibition contest resulted as follows:

1. T. H. J. Fortune, time 3 minutes and 29 seconds, prize $30.
2. James Hampton, 3 minutes and 45 seconds, prize $20.
3. Alex McIntyre, 4 minutes and 40 seconds, prize $10.

Other contestants were Polka Zoff and John Bonn.

The extra contest for the $10 side bet was won by T. M. J. Fortune whose time was 2 minutes, and 59 seconds against Polka Zoff's 3 minutes and 41 seconds.

J. A. Murray was in charge of the contest and Ollie Rogers was timekeeper.

MODEL BOATS

Two Shown at Fair Were Much Admired.

An exhibit that has created a deal of interest at the Fair is that of the two model boats. The model pleasure cruiser "Myrtle" built by Cecil Rose—a local boy of 17 years of age, took first prize, while the model sailing schooner "Nettie Smith" built by Capt. T. D. Smith of the halibut boat D.C.F. obtained special mention. These models are of an entirely different class. The details of the pleasure cruiser "Myrtle" are remarkably true to the full sized pleasure cruiser "Loafer" which was built by the eminent naval architect, W. W. Deed, details of which were published recently in The Motor Boat. The model measures 4 ft. long by 13 inch beam, and the interior is completely unholstered as are also the exterior seats, where pretty little cushions complete a very snug and pretty effect.

The model sailing schooner "Nettie Smith" is one of the finest models in its class in the province and won the first prize at the Exhibition two years ago. This boat measures 5 ft. long with a beam of 14 inches and stands 6 ft. high to the top of masts. It is fitted with seven sails, three jibs, two mainsails, and two top sails, controlled by workable gear running in miniature wooden pulleys.

Two other models, perhaps more interesting to boatbuilders were those entered by T. M. Orwig. These were a fa forty-foot Norwegian pilot boat and a fifty-two foot halibut boat. The work on these hulls was very well done, each individual plank being of red and yellow cedar alternating.

TELLS ABOUT CEDAR CREEK

Paddy Creagh, Pioneer Prospector, is Visiting Prince Rupert.

Paddy Creagh, an old timer in the mineral prospecting game, is in town again after a four months' prospecting trip into the Cedar Creek district, situated a few miles from Quesnel. Paddy has staked a 28 foot ledge of gold ore, on which is a lode of fine Fraser River gold, and the samples he has brought out with him certainly contain a goodly sprinkling of free milling gold. He says the deeper you go, the finer the gold you get, and with this axiom in mind he has driven a 50 foot tunnel on his claim.

There are four or five excellent gold claims in the Cedar Creek district which have been proven from a gold bearing standpoint, and there is a lot more good ground there which Paddy says will "take" a lot of money to test as it is so thickly covered with wash. He has seen three men take out 17½ ozs. of gold at one rocker which is going some.

The question of transportation into this country is being gone into by the provincial government and there is already a good wagon road to within four miles of the Cedar Creek dis-

Lilly Ingram and Nell Lamont, the two Surf Inlet women whose trial for selling liquor contrary to the Government Liquor Act is pending, raised their $3,000 bail each yesterday afternoon and were released from the city jail to appear again when their trial is resumed in a week's time. Owen Fisher and T. Shimizu were the bondsmen.

MASQUERADE LAST NIGHT

About 1,000 People Visited Exhibition Hall Last Night to Take Part in or Witness Event

It is estimated that one thousand and persons visited the Exhibition Hall last night to take part in or witness the great masquerade ball, concluding the fourth day of the Fair. There were about 50 couples in costume and some of these were rather clever. The large majority of the dancers, however, were in ordinary clothes.

The dancing commenced about 10 o'clock and continued till well after 2 in the morning. Shortly after 11 o'clock the Grand March took place and the judges selected the winners, after which all unmasked. The judges were Mrs. J. C. McLennan, Mrs. H. E. Tremayne and J. F. Strang. Their selections were as follows:

Best men's character costume—George Brooks, of Port Simpson, whose handsome Indian chief's costume of blanket and rabbit skins with feather headgear was an easy first in its class.

Best ladies' character costume—Miss Alexina Wood, who wore a dainty Turkish costume.

Best men's comic costume—W. J. Wakefield, clown.

Best ladies' comic costume—Miss Pearl Clayton, Chinese lady.

Splendid dance music was furnished by Newell's Orchestra, consisting of Douglas Jack, violin; Art Easson, saxophone; Bob Newell, piano; and Howard White, drums.

Ralph Harrap and R. E. Benson were the floor managers.

James Adams, a Naas River Indian, was fined $10 by Indian Agent W. E. Collison yesterday having been found guilty of intoxication.
