SUCCESSFUL HUNTERS AT KENNEDY ISLAND

O. P. Smith, Ben Grossett and W. A. Bell Got a Deer Apiece Yesterday Morning.

O. P. Smith, captain of the launch Billy Boy, Ben Grossett and W. A. Bell were the members of a successful hunting party which returned last night from Kennedy Island with one fine buck apiece. They were away for two days, Monday and Tuesday, but only had one morning's real hunting, yesterday. They report the going tough for it was necessary to go clear to the top of the mountains to find the deer, there being none lower down. The fine, warm weather recently and the fact that there is no snow whatever on the hills yet, keeps are quarry high. Members of this party are not so enthusiastic about again tackling the job of packing a full sized deer down from the mountain tops.

The trip was made on the Billy Boy.

Dance in De Luxe Hall tonight 9 to 1:30. Gentlemen 75c, Ladies 50c. Refreshments, Arthur's Orchestra.
