FIRE INSURANCE is a hobby of ours. We take keen pleasure in making sure that all policies are so written that they cover your property exactly as you intend. If you entrust your fire insurance to careless, inexperienced or ignorant agents you may find, when you come to collect your fire loss, that your policies are so worded that the insurance company is not liable and so will not pay the loss. Why take chances?

NORTHERN NOTES

An 80 horsepower Fairbanks-Morse semi-diesel engine, used in installing and maintaining a municipal electric lighting system for the city of Wrangell, has been sold by the Treadwell mining company. The lighting system in Wrangell is now managed by private owners.

E. J. Williams, of Ketchikan, who has been ill the past several days at his home with pneumonia, is progressing satisfactorily. While pneumonia is always dangerous, the case is not an extremely serious one, says Dr. H. G. Story who is attending the patient.

Martin Radovan killed a silver tip bear last week on Dan Creek. It was one of the largest ever killed in the district.

Lack of roads in the Kautishna district are said to be delaying development of the country according to residents there.

The Road Commission will build a bridge across the Pile-driver slough on the Fairbanks-Valdez trail, next spring. The structure will consist of two 90 foot spans, the material for which is already at Fairbanks.

TERRACE

Dr. and Mrs. Bleeker entertained about forty young people to a delightful evening's enjoyment of dancing in the Progress Hall last Thursday. The dance was given in honor of the anniversary of Miss Jensen's birthday.

Father Leray officiated at the first Christmas mass ever held in Terrace on Christmas Eve. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and special music was greatly appreciated.

Miss Toombs sustained a fractured wrist, last Saturday, when she slipped on the ice while crossing the canyon. She had to proceed to Hazelton for treatment.

The Shingle mill, the edger, and the planer of the new Little saw mill are now working, and finished lumber and shingles are being turned out. Teams are also hauling in logs from the north of the town.

Father Leray has left here for his new field at Prince George. Father Wolfe will be his successor.

Got No Sleep

But now the neuritis has gone, the pains have ceased, the nervous system is restored and the writer of this letter pays a grateful tribute to the medicine which made him well.

Mr. John Woodward, P.T.O., Lucan, Ont., writes:

"It gives me much pleasure to recommend Dr. Chase's medicine, especially the Nerve Food. I was a sufferer from neuritis for several years, and tried all kinds of remedies, yet never seemed to get any better. At last my nerves and whole system seemed to get away through not being able to get any rest or sleep at nights for pain, which mostly used to take me in all parts of the limbs and feet. My nerves would twitch till my whole body would seem to jerk right up as I lay in bed. Almost at the point of despair, I decided I would get Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which I did, and after taking twenty boxes I believe myself almost normal again. I also keep a box of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills on hand, and for the past year I seem to enjoy my usual health."

SEGREGATION IN FRENCH TRAINS

Compartment for Smokers, Babies, Women — Separation Politicians Suggested.

PARIS, Jan. 3.—The French have already carried to a considerable length the segregation of railway travellers according to natural or acquired characteristics. In addition to the British schemes of partition in favor of smokers and women, there are special arrangements for railway staff, sportsmen with dogs, and members of parliament. Now a bill has been tabled by a deputy which aims at securing special accommodation for women with babies under two years of age. The main object seems to be to safeguard the baby from the oppressive companionship of the adult, but it is at least likely that the benefit to temper will be reciprocal.

There is really no end to the possibilities before an enterprising and imaginative railway company that makes "Every man in his humor" the motto of its service. The first step is to provide refuge for the silent and to safeguard the lover of books from the menace of a third-rate talker. Many would regard the "Non-Talker" as the happiest abode for a long journey, though the schedule of penalties for breach of the peace and the best means of inducing them would no doubt raise difficulties and even litigation. The problem of those whose choice is for conversation raises further possibilities of classification. Political parties might, in the interests of harmonious travelling, elect to keep themselves to themselves.

Fortunately there is not, like the inhabitants of the Southern United States, a racial problem to complicate matters, but as they keep black from white in the matter of compartments it might assist the amenities of the railroad if "reds" and "whites" of the more aggressive type had their appropriate debating chambers ready labelled. That travellers with severe colds and the fore-running signs of influenza hot upon them should share a common exile is perhaps too ambitious a scheme even for the precise particularism of French travel.

There is only one person who has everything to lose by the universal adoption of all these fine shades of distinction. That is the man who makes it a point of punctual honor never to be early but always to mount the train as it leaves. With no time to look before he leaps he might find himself in some very hot corners.

AND CONTINUES TILL SATURDAY, JANUARY 14, 1922

To our customers and citizens of Rupert this extraordinary sale is announced. This sale is undoubtedly an "anti-mail order house" sale and will stimulate the idea of buying at home.

Because this is the first and last sale of its kind to take place this coming year. No such bargains have been offered before and there never will. We are offering this opportunity now because our stock is a little more than we should care to have and are willing to sacrifice it rather than to carry it through.
