MYSTERIOUS STUDENT OXFORD UNIVERSITY

LONDON, Nov. 3.—M. Venizelos, former Greek Premier, who is now very much in the public eye and is something of a mystery to the British public, has an equally mysterious young secretary, a tall, dark youth named Andrea Constantino Michelopoulos.

He was an undergraduate at Oriel College, Oxford, until a few months ago, always immaculate, well dressed and a brilliant scholar. His studies, however, did not prevent his participation in politics, and he frequently obtained permission to spend a night away from college ostensibly on domestic affairs. It has since transpired, however, that such trips included flying to Paris by aeroplane and returning the following day.

Michelopoulos left Oxford a few weeks before the Tino coup, but arrived in Greece only in time to escape on board Venizelos' private yacht. Before coming to Oxford he had been Civil Governor of Lemnos, Prefect of Eastern Macedonia, and had served in the Greek Army.

FIRST LIMERICK IS BY SMITHERS AUTHOR

J. Roberts Adjudged Best, Roth Gordon Second and Nancy Rorie Third

After much tribulation on the part of the judges the prizes in the limerick competition have been awarded as follows:

First—J. Roberts, of Smithers. Second—Roth Gordon. Third—Nancy Rorie.

There were a number of good verses and it was difficult deciding which was best. At least two by Mrs. I. B. Moore were only eliminated in the final choice. The winning verses are as follows:

First Prize
There once was a gallant young bear
Who took his best girl to the show;
Though it cost him a dollar
And her tears spoiled his collar.

He said: "Jove, it's worth it, you know."

Second Prize
I once saw a picture — The "Sheik,"
"Was shot on a desert so bleak —
With undulous curves
It got on my nerves —

I'll swear I ate sand for a week."

Third Prize
Have you heard of that actor named Wally,
His other name's Reid, and by golly,
The girls all declare
They love his sleek hair,
And the way that he smiles is so jolly!

If the winners of the second and third prizes will call at the Daily News office, they will be given an order on the Westholme Theatre for a two week's pass and a one week respectively. The cash will be forwarded to Mr. Roberts at Smithers.

AIR PRESSURE AND LEVELS OF LAKE

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—How to regulate the level of the Great Lakes and why the level of Lake Michigan varies at different points at the same time, is the subject of a report made public by John F. Hayford, dean of the engineering school of Northwestern University. Experiments over a period of eleven years formed the basis of the report. Dean Hayford and his colleagues concluded that when the barometric pressure of two points varies, the lake level will vary inversely as the barometric pressure.

Dean Hayford advocates the regulation of lake levels by the construction of movable dams in the St. Lawrence river near Lake Ontario and in the Niagara River opposite Buffalo, N.Y.

ARTIFICIAL EYELASHES ADORN PARISIAN WOMEN

PARIS, Nov. 3.—A superb set of silky eyelashes, secure for all time and impervious to loss through laughter or tears, may be had in Paris for a price, or rather two prices, the cost in frames charged for the operation and the pain which this same operation entails.

There are Parisian women who gladly pay both. The lashes are sewn into the edges of the lids by a deft surgeon, and take root there after about twenty days. Seen close at hand, they show no scar or rim around the lid to betray the surgeon's touches.

CONGRESS BUSINESS ON NOVEMBER 20

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—(By Canadian Press)—President Harding's purpose now is to call Congress back to Washington, November 20. This is the information which has been given members of Congress who have recently conferred with him. It has not been announced officially when official announcement will be made. Also, it is true that a number of leaders are still trying to induce the President not to call the extra session.

Ship subsidy will likely be before the House as soon as the extra session meets. The Senate will consider it in the regular short session which opens in December.

While the House takes up subsidy, the Senate will consider the anti-lynching bill demanded by colored republican voters. A number of other important measures will be pressed for passage this winter, including a general overhauling of the existing law relating to railroad labor and the railroad labor board. The Harding administration wants to avoid an extra session next spring but the program of proposed legislation of the first order is so long that it is by no means sure it can be avoided.

Persistent advertising is absolutely necessary to success.
