Secret Skin Troubles

MEAN NIGHTS & DAYS OF ITCHING TORTURE.

A well-known physician says that he comes across many terrible cases of secret skin disease. Because there's a natural disinclination to seek advice, the sufferer either neglects the trouble in its early stages, or else aggravates it by use of some poisonous medicinal ointment. Whilst this may hide up surface sores, it also drives disease further into the skin.

You cannot thoroughly and permanently banish diseases like eczema, tetter, psoriasis, ringworm, etc., unless you first destroy all disease germs. Zam-Buk does this quickly and thoroughly.

Zam-Buk is unique in its germicidal and healing strength. Its soothing herbal essences penetrate into the skin right into the weakened and diseased inner tissues, killing the germs and uprooting disease at its very source.

The first dressing of Zam-Buk ends the dreadful itching and when all sore inflamed tissues have been thoroughly soothed and purified by Zam-Buk, every trace of disease is made to disappear, and there is a splendid new growth of clear healthy skin.

Sport Chat

The closing year of sport in the United States has not only kept up with the past but has developed even more remarkable records and more notable achievements than have gone on in the books since the war, when sport began its wonderful revival.

Outstanding figures of the year were:

Tennis.—William T. Tilden and Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen.

Golf.—Gene Sarazen and Jesse Sweetser.

Rowing.—United States navy and Walter Hoover.

Swimming.—Johnny Weismuller and Helen Wainwright.

Boxing.—Johnny Dundee.

Track and Field.—Joe Hay, Pat McDonald and De Hart Hubbard.

Baseball.—Sisler, Hornsby and Rommel.

Tilden became the supreme monarch of the tennis world when he won the national bowl by his third victory in the national championships. He also earned the world's championship by defeating Gerald Palterson, the holder of the British title.

Mlle. Lenglen's outstanding feat was her defeat of Mrs. Molla Mallory, the American champion, at Wimbledon.

Johnny Dundee won two ring titles, the junior-lightweight and the featherweight championship of the New York boxing commission. He fought more than any other boxer, went out of his class more and earned more distinction than any other fighter.

George Sisler, in all round work, was the greatest baseball star of the year. He earned the title of the perfect ball player.

Hornsby's great batting and home run hitting made him the brightest star of the National league, and the great pitching of Ed. Rommel, with the lowly Athletics, covered him with glory.
