The Place To Go

"I'll meet you at Mussallem's!" This is the thing to say when arranging to see your friends again. This popular Confectionery and Delicatessen is the place to call in at of an evening and is the popular place of resort for ladies to meet their friends in the afternoon. Here you may have a cool drink on the warm afternoons or a hot drink in the colder evenings. Fresh made tea or coffee is served quickly and ice cream is always available.

Orders are taken for cooked meats, roast chickens and other delicatessen and our stocks are all kept in a modern refrigerator showcase in a sanitary condition. Home made bread, cakes, cookies, etc. are always on hand. Next time you are in, try some of our cheese sandwiches—or toasted cheese! You'll like it.

Union steamer Venture, Capt. Ernest Georgeson arrived in port at 715 last evening from the south and sailed at 12 midnight on her return to Vancouver and waypoints. Under new schedule, effective next week, the venture will in future arrive here Thursday evenings from the south, sailing at midnight the same night on her return south.

Insomnia
"INSOMNIA does not kill its man unless he kills himself—sleeplessness is the most common cause of suicide. It kills the joy of living, it saps his strength, it sucks the blood from his brain and from his heart like a vampire." So writes a famous nerve specialist.

Sleeplessness can best be relieved by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food which soothes and restores the tired nerves and removes the cause of sleeplessness, headaches, indigestion and other symptoms of exhausted nerves. Under this restorative treatment discouragement and depressed feelings give way to new hope and confidence.

A SATURDAY SERMON

The Hopeless Regain New Hope

(By Rev. P. M. Fosse, St. Paul's Lutheran Church)
"He expounded unto them in all the scripture, the things concerning himself."—Luke: 24, 25.
The two disciples on the way to Emmaus received great blessings from their journey. The companion that joined them proved to be the Supreme Teacher and Interpreter in whom all wisdom dwelleth.
The Lord Jesus humbled himself to be a Gospel preacher and, true to his calling, whether the audience were one, two or thousands, we find him just as eager. He had come to seek to save the ones that were lost.
This Supreme Teacher used the best textbook. Although he could have revealed new truths he chose to expound the old truth. He knew all things and his method of teaching was getting results. He expounded Moses and the Prophets—no speculations whatever. This was the surest and quickest way to wisdom and will always be the true study of God's own word. It is the absolute way to get spiritual riches in Heavenly knowledge—to dig in this mine of diamonds and to gather pearls in this heavenly ocean.
When Jesus made others rich, he dipped out of the Holy Scripture, the greatest of all topics. He expounded himself—all that was written about him. The diamond cut the diamond. The Lord of the house opened the doors and placed them at his beautiful table.
Dear reader, let us come to Him and surrender entirely. He is the Hope of the Hopeless—extending His invitation to all of us, saying: "Come now, let us reason together, though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool." Reader, try Him!
