CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

Unemployed Delegation Appears Before Council-Committee to Pass on Applications

A delegation consisting of Charles Chapman, T. W. Murphy and Tom Scully, representing the local branch of the National Unemployed! Workers' Association, appeared before the city council at its meeting last night to again urge the necessity of winter clothing being provided for the children of destitute unemployed. After Mayor Orme had explained to the delegation that all the funds for clothing had been exhausted and the city would have to receive back from the government its share of the cost of clothing already distributed before any more could be made available, the delcgation agreed to a suggestion of Ald. Casey that, in future, all applications for clothing shall come to the city through the central committee of the National Unemployed Workers' Association which shall vouch for the bonafideness of each case. Mayor Orme assured the delegation that the city council was honestly and sincerely desirous of seeing the children supplied with clothing and would do so as soon as it was financially possible.

Ald. Macdonald thought that the its share of relief as soon as pos-

Ald. Casey then offered the suggestion that the unemployed association might vouch for the absolute bona fide-ness of each applicant for clothing.

T. W. Murphy stated that this suggestion would be agreeable to the association. The association was already working on such a basis
