HEROES ARE GIVEN HONOR

Unveiling of Plaque for Members of Bank of Commerce Who Served in War Unveiled
 Brief but impressive and dignified was the service held yesterday afternoon in the Canadian Bank of Commerce when the tablet in honor of the men of the staff of the bank who served overseas in the Great War was unveiled. Judge F. McB. Young officiated and he was assisted by local clergymen. There was a gathering of about 40 prominent citizens present to do honor to the occasion.
 The service opened with a few remarks by S. K. Campbell, the local manager. He gave an outline of the idea conceived in setting up these plaques in memory of those who had served their country. A similar tablet was being prepared in every branch of the bank.
Judge Young Officiates
 After a hymn had been sung, Judge Young formally unveiled the tablet. He gave an interesting set of statistics in connection with the records of the men. In the first year of the war 460 members of the staff had enlisted and at the close the number was 1701. Two hundred and fifty-eight had paid the supreme sacrifice. The men had served on every front where British arms were represented and had won every British decoration including the Victoria Cross. Approximately 1,000 were back again in the service.
 After the unveiling, Canon G. A. Rix gave a dedicatory prayer, a hymn was sung and Rev. Dr. H. R. Grant pronounced the benediction.
 Among those present were: Archbishop F. H. DuVerne, D. G. Stewart, N. B. Walton, H. T. Willett, R. E. Moore, Bishop Bunoz, Rev. Dr. H. R. Grant, Canon Rix, D. C. McRae, H. St. G. Lee, S. J. McLeod, J. F. Ritchie, Judge F. McB. Young, D. H. Morrison, J. C. McLennan, R. Beaumont, L. M. Fuller, Mayor Rochester, T. H. Johnson, Theo. Collart, W. E. Collison, J. Lorne MacLaren, J. H. Pillsbury, W. G. Anderson, Dr. J. A. West, S. K. Campbell, John Shirley, G. Whitehead, A. Squires, J. Lister, R. Henwood, G. W. Evans, Miss Nora Phillipson, W. McKenzie, Jack Plint, Thomas McLymont, John McRae, and F. W. Henning.

MOVIE FILMS OF NORTH POLE

Road Amundsen Will Carry Outfit When He Leaves Seattle in May.
 SEATTLE, Feb. 27.—In all probability Roald Amundsen on his aeroplane dash to the North Pole, will leave Seattle sometime in May aboard the Maud and will go north via the outside passage to Nome. Lieutenant Omdal and Sergeant Odd Dahl, two Norwegian aviators will accompany the expedition. A moving picture outfit will be part of the equipment and it is contemplated that some 30,000 feet of film will be exposed. Two extra men have been engaged in Christiania by Amundsen to take part in the expedition. The two aviators who are also expert wireless operators, will keep the Maud in touch with Spitzbergen and will receive messages from the Norwegian wireless station at Stavanger. They will join the expedition at Seattle.
Powerful Motors
 The aeroplanes to be used in the North Pole dash will have motors of 60 h.p. and will be provided with skis and wheels to facilitate their travel over the ice fields. Both machines will accommodate two passengers. Only one machine will be used at a time the other machine being held in reserve.
 A shed will be built on the ice to house the planes when assembled as the Maud will not have sufficient space.
 The Norwegian army and navy have presented to the explorers the arms and ammunition necessary for the trip, and specially selected provisions will be sent to Seattle for their use.

SEATTLE WILL NOT PLAY THE HOCKEY GAME

Refuses to Take Advantage of the Weakened Condition of Vancouver.
 VANCOUVER, Feb. 27.—Seattle refuses to play Vancouver tonight in the first game of the play off for the championship of the Pacific Coast Hockey League, because Lloyd Cook, captain of the Vancouver team and Mickey McKay were both laid up on Sunday with influenza and in addition to that Smokey Harris would be unable to play on account of a broken nose which he got in the game against Seattle on Wednesday last. Seattle declines to take advantage of the weakened condition of the Vancouver team and asks that the Seattle game on Friday night become the first game of the series in the hope that Vancouver will have a proper line-up by that time. The second game could be played next Monday.

LEAGUE HOCKEY

Hamilton 1, Montreal 6.
 Ottawa 5, Toronto 7.
Winners of The Sheik Foxtrot Records at Friday and Saturday Performances.
 On Friday and Saturday night there were drawings for the Sheik record offered by the management of the Westholme theatre. The second show drawing on Friday has not yet been claimed so three numbers have been drawn and if the first is not taken the second will get the record and failing that the third. The numbers are as follows:
Friday.
 1st Show, 6060, Carl Gustafson
 2nd Show, 1431, and 1423.
Saturday
 1st Show, 6181, Mrs. Essen,
 2nd Show, 2063, S. Sutton.

Warned to Avoid Snow Parties and Nefarious Drugs
 VANCOUVER, Feb. 27.—Because of the publicity which is being given to the campaign against the sale and use of narcotic drugs in Vancouver, some of the drug peddlers are taking to cover in the small towns and rural parts of the province, where they are continuing their nefarious trade. Because of this problem, the provincial division of the Canadian Red Cross is sending a warning to every newspaper in the province in order that not only the officials, but all citizens, especially teachers and parents, should be on the alert against the insidious traffic in drugs.
 Dance halls need watching. Watch the stranger in town. Avoid "snow" parties, where snuff (cocaine) is given. Close chaperonage of girls is the greatest safeguard, and parents should insist on this.
 The habit begins by the snuffing of cocaine, which causes a feeling of exhilaration. After three or four doses the user can not sleep and must then resort to morphine.
