MURDER AT KITIMAAT

Meagre Details of Tragedy Reach City—Mounted Police Await Further Advice.

News of a tragedy in which a young native was killed last Wednesday at Kitimaat Indian village has reached the city. Details are lacking, but it is understood that the Royal Canadian Mounted Police have been called upon in a telegram from Rev. E. A. Gouldrey, the missionary. The wire merely stated that there was trouble and further details are being awaited before official action is taken and a detachment is sent south.

John Currie and his son Charles arrived from the vicinity last night and tell of having met some natives who told them of the affair. It appears that Mrs. Robinson, native, widow of the storekeeper at Kitimaat, had been conducting the store and that she was assisted by a young native whose name is not given. The latter had gone out from the store on Wednesday and was later found in the snow dead, apparently having been choked to death. Two white men, in a gasboat, had been in the neighborhood and they disappeared about the time of the tragedy. It is thought that the intent had been robbery, but when the perpetrators of the crime saw what they had done they became frightened and left as soon as possible.

An Indian launch took Mr. Gouldrey to Swanson Bay to notify the police by wire, but when a reply message was sent to him to obtain further details he had left. Kitimaat being under the Bella Coola Indian agency, the case should properly be attended to by Indian Agent Ivor Fougner and his constable at Bella Coola. The local police are awaiting advice from there before taking action.

FIRST HERRING IN YESTERDAY

N. M. & R. Catches 50 Tons in Ogden Channel—10 Tons Brought Here Today.

The first herring catch of the season was made yesterday when the N. M. & R. No. 1, Captain James Neville, took 50 tons in Ogden Channel. Ten tons of the catch was brought into Prince Rupert this morning and dispensed to the halibut fishing trade. From now on it is expected the run will be strong for three months. The N. M. & R. Co. will operate the two boats, Malamute and N. M. & R. No. 1 in catching the bait fish and will keep the two pounds at Jap Inlet and Captain's Cove filled with a live supply that should last for six months.

SUCCESSFUL TEA WAS HELD FOR PRINCESS MARY FUR GIFT FUND

Large Number Present on Saturday at Affair Given by Mrs. McMordie.

A pretty and successful tea was held on Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, at the home of Mrs. S. P. McMordie, the regent of the Princess Mary fur gift fund. Many ladies, all members of the Daughters of the Empire, called and the sum of $19.00 was realized. The decorations were carried out in the colors of the order, purple and gold; and the tables had a charming appearance with daffodils and violets.

Mrs. McMordie was assisted in receiving by Mrs. R. Blance, regent of the Queen Mary Chapter, and Mrs. G. L. Youngman, regent of the Adair Garss Chapter. Mrs. J. H. McMullin invited the guests into the tea room where Miss Carter was in charge assisted by Mrs. G. Whitehead, Mrs. F. Gilluly, and Miss McLeod. Mrs. A. W. Healy and Mrs. H. L. Roberson served from 3 to 4; Mrs. Du Vernet and Mrs. J. C. McLennan from 4 to 5 and Mrs. G. A. Egger and Mrs. Fred Ritchie from 5 to 6. Miss Louie Fisher opened the door.

At intervals during the afternoon solos were sung by Mrs. N. B. Walton and Miss Davies, the accompanist being Miss Stephen. Miss Lorna Tite rendered a piano solo. Mrs. A. T. Parkin had charge of the autograph book and the collection box.

The billiard tournament of last week between the Sons of England and the Great War Veterans was a great scrap between the two teams with the object of getting out of the cellar position and the Vets rallied in fine shape with the result that they left the Sons rather far behind. In one fell swoop they put themselves in such a position that it is now rather unlikely that they will again be in any danger of occupying the bottom floor in the Trail Club competition. Tonight the Wanderers and the Elks will meet. The former team has hopes of creeping up a little closer on the Trail for first place, but the lead of the latter club is still safe, however, and there is little danger of them being ousted whatever the outcome in the tournaments in which they participate themselves. If they can carry on as they have been doing since the season opened there will be little danger of them losing the trophy which they now hold.
