IN THE LETTER BOX

Editor Daily News:—

The whole world is appalled by the reports concerning conditions in Russia. There is a certainty that thousands are starving in that country. There are few who are not anxious to do something to relieve the situation there, but, rightly or wrongly, many of such are not satisfied to send relief through Soviet channels.

To such may I say that there is a British Relief Fund under British control. The patrons of this fund are His Eminence Cardinal Bourne, His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Rt. Hon. Marquis Curzon, K.C. The chairman of the committee is Lord Weardale, 26 Golden Square, Regent Street, London, W.C.

Any one wishing to help in this urgent matter can hand over their contributions to W. D. Vance, city treasurer, who will forward them to the above named organization.

HOW VOTE GOES IN VANCOUVER

Tisdall Leading for Mayor—Croce and Owen Returned Council—Bylaws Carry, Turned Down.

VANCOUVER, Jan. 13.—Ald. C. E. Tisdall is leading in the mayoral election count but is only ahead of Ald. J. J. McRae by about 100. The quota necessary for election is 5118. Tisdall received 3614 first choice votes, McRae, 3996; Taylor, 1991; Kirk, 1694, and Lutzgar, 127.

Ald. Croce and Ald. Owen were returned to the council on the first choice votes and indications are that the other six members of last year's council who are running will also be elected.

The Daylight Saving and Water Bylaws carried but several other bylaws including three for school buildings were snowed under.

Little interest was shown in the contest and between 10,000 and 11,000 of the 11,000 voters on the list registered their preferences.
