PRESIDENT OF NAVY LEAGUE FOR B.C. IS VISITING CITY

Major W. H. Langley, president of the B. C. Division of the Navy League of Canada, is in the city today on his return to Victoria from Montreal where he attended the annual meeting of the Dominion Council of the Navy League. In view of the fact that Prince Rupert was looked upon as an important point by the Navy League, Mr. Langley decided to return this way. He said that a renewal of the activities of the league here with increased vigor was something which the council was very desirous of seeing.

"The prospects for Navy League and boys' brigades throughout Canada are much more hopeful for the reason that it is likely that their scope will be widened and grants are practically assured by the new government," said Major Langley. He had interviews in Ottawa with Hon. G. P. Graham, minister of militia and defence, Premier King, Hon. Hewitt Bostock and Capt. Hose, director of naval service, and co-operation between the government and the Navy League was assured. The government was taking up the matter of naval defence in a sensible and effective manner and if present plans carried out at the end of ten years there should be ready for naval services of any kind several thousand well trained men.
