Done Good Work At Ottawa.

The delegates from this city seem to have done good work at Ottawa. They brought nothing home on a platter and that was not to be expected. Even if they had definite information there may be reasons for not disseminating it too freely. What is clear is that the delegates are themselves confident that we shall get good treatment from the Ottawa Government. They have been in close touch with the ministers, the deputy ministers and the members of Parliament and as a result of that close association they give the opinion that Prince Rupert seems to be on the eve of great development.

It will not take very much to satisfy Prince Rupert. If we can secure the erection of coal bunkers, the building of an elevator and the establishment of an assembly dock for the shipment of lumber, as well as the daily train service, lower freight rates and the development of continuous use of the shipyard and drydock we can then get busy and agitate for other things. These will give us a starter. We may not get them all or at any rate not all immediately but it is to be expected we shall get some of them before long. There are a good many other things we need but we shall have to concentrate on a few things and try to get them.

In the summer the ministers are expected to visit this city and they will inspect the port with a view to such improvements as they may consider necessary. We shall then have an opportunity to back up the work of our delegates and urge as strongly as we know how the establishment of this port.

Government Interested Financially Here.

The Government is interested here financially. The railway is owned by the Government, the waterfront and port facilities are theirs, part of the townsite is theirs, the vessels operating out of here are mostly theirs. The planning of the railway and its building was the work of their predecessors. In fact Prince Rupert is a Liberal baby and it looks to its parents to give it proper nourishment and set it up in life as an adult with a fair chance of success in the struggle for existence. No favors are asked but simply that it be given a fair start in life, without the handicap of being prematurely starved and neglected by its parents.

Recognition of Archdeacon Rix.

The announcement of the recognition by the Bishop of the services to the community of Rev. G. A. Rix, rector of St. Andrew's pro-cathedral in this city, by making him Archdeacon of Prince Rupert as well as Canon, is one that will be appreciated by the members of his congregation and the people of the city generally.

Archdeacon Rix is a hard worker, an able exponent of Biblical truths and intensely keen on everything which is for the betterment of the city. During his nine years here he has helped to lay the foundation of the city in righteousness and it is to be hoped he will be enabled to see the structure grow and expand along similar lines.

The work of Canon Rushbrook on the coast is done so quietly that it is often almost forgotten. None knows better than the Bishop of the diocese the excellent work being done with the launch Northern Cross and the recognition of the value of that work by the Archdeacon is an indication of his ability to recognize and give credit for real service.

Terrace Oil Shale May Be Indication.

While it is much too early to begin getting enthusiastic over the oil prospects at Terrace, the finding of oil shale only four hundred feet from the surface is an indication that there may be the real thing beneath. Possibly other oil shales will be pierced by the diamond drill as it goes down, but whether there is oil or not will be decided only by further boring. It is possible, if the indications at the present boring site are good, that other holes will be put down at various points in the valley and that more companies will take an interest in the proceedings. We wish them all every success for the finding of oil at Terrace would benefit the whole district.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" SAVED HER LIFE

This Fruit Medicine Always Gives Relief

917 DORRIS ST., MONTREAL.
I suffered terribly with Dyspepsia. I had it for years and all the medicines I took did not do me any good. I read something about "Fruit-a-tives" being good for all Stomach Trouble and Disorders of Digestion, so I tried them.

After finishing a few boxes, I was entirely relieved of the Dyspepsia and my general health was restored; and I am writing to tell you that I owe my life to "Fruit-a-tives."

The Man in the Moon SAYS:-

SOMETHING ought to be done about it. We're all agreed about that but what to do is the problem.

THE thing that does not get you anywhere in this country is sitting down and just hoping.

I HOPE someone will die and leave me half a million dollars but I know he won't.

ANOTHER thing that does not get you very far is asking for a check by return mail and for the amount to include the discount.

SITTING around the fire one member of the company said he eschewed meat. Another remarked that he always used tender meat so did not need to eschew it.

HERE is Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., establishing a newspaper syndicate all his own. What I can't understand is how a man can go into newspaper work if he does not have to.

TO me it is like getting up in the morning. I get up only because I have to work or because I am hungry.

SOME politicians become as popular as the waiter who grabs your plate before you have finished.

A CORRESPONDENT says she does not know what to do with her husband. Neither do I. The most sensible thing would seem to be to kill him. He probably deserves it.

JUDGING by the way they act you would think some of the people in this city had been taking nerve pills.

DEAFNESS is sometimes almost as useful as a keen sense of hearing.

THE meanest looking man in town is the one who goes sneaking down the street with a grip trying to look as if there was nothing in it but clothes.

There may be reasonable objections to women smoking but it is far preferable to chewing the rag.

PROFITS COMMENSURATE.

Lady—I should think you'd be ashamed to lead such an idle and unprofitable life.

Frayed Phil (as he tackled a good handout)—Idle it may be, mum, but considerin' de capital invested, de profits is purty good.—Boston Transcript.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL AWAKENS VICTORIA

Objection Taken to Early Morning Viewing of Film by Movie Man.

A special despatch to the Vancouver World sheds an interesting light on the new life being put into the conduct of the office of the Attorney-General at Victoria.

Which is the more valuable, the time of the Attorney-general or that of a moving picture operator?

This was the poser which a Vancouver movie manager had to answer on Monday afternoon, and which accounts for the fact that Attorney-General Manson was an attendant at 8.30 this morning at a private moving picture show at a leading Victoria picture house this morning.

It happened in this wise. The staff of the moving picture censor's office had cut out a whole lot of fight scenes in a film to be shown in Vancouver. Great indignation at the theatre office. Hot wires to Victoria making a protest and invoking an appeal to the attorney-general.

Busiest Man
Hon. Mr. Manson is the busiest man in B.C. at present. He was in his office at 8 a.m. till 11 p.m. on Saturday and almost as long on Monday, trying to get abreast of his piled up work.

"We'll put the film on at any time in Victoria if you will see for yourself," offered the movie manager.

"Very well. Eight-thirty sharp at the Capitol, Tuesday morning," answered the attorney-general and made a note on his engagement pad.

"Eight-thirty; eight-thirty?" queried the movie manager. "I couldn't ask a picture operator to be on deck at eight-thirty in the morning," he stammered.

"Whose time do you think is the more valuable, the time of the attorney-general or that of a moving picture operator?" asked Hon. Mr. Manson, and the movie man succumbed. That is why the early morning show was staged this morning.

ALTERATIONS TO HART BLOCK EXTENSIVE

Ticket and Telegraph Offices to Separate—McRae Bros. Store Enlarged.

When present alterations which are being made to the Hart Block on Third Avenue are completed the Canadian National Railway ticket and telegraph offices will occupy separate quarters altogether.

The telegraph office will remain in its present location, but the ticket office is to be moved to the portion of the building formerly occupied by Munro Bros. grocery store. Considerable alterations are being made to the frontage and new windows are to be put in.

Mellie Bros. stationery store will be extended to take in that part of the railway office now occupied by the ticket department. The frontage of the stationery store will thus be increased by about one-half.

S. Robertson, chief electrician of the telegraph company, is here from Toronto supervising the changing of the telegraph equipment and switchboard. When this work is done the local office will be enabled to work direct with Seattle. Mr. Robertson will be here about a week.

GO INTO THE WATER AFTER SOME LIQUOR

OGDENSBURG, N.Y., April 17.—The sight of many partially filled bottles of Canadian whiskey and beer floating on the surface of Lake Champlain recently was more than a crowd of people at Rouses Point could stand. Many jumped into rowboats while others did not hesitate in wetting their feet in an attempt to salvage some of the liquor which was being destroyed by customs officers, reports reaching here state.

Customs officers who had broken and thrown into the Lake 3,800 bottles of liquor which had been seized, were compelled to use force to keep the crowd back when it was discovered that many of the bottles did not sink immediately.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

April 17, 1912.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Woods, Borden Street, last night when Miss Isabelle Smith, who recently arrived from Scarborough, England, became the bride of Frank A. Ellis, Rev. F. W. Kerr officiating.

John Dorsey plans the importing of milk to Prince Rupert from Bellingham, Washington, and the establishment of a depot here. Several of the members of the council are against the bringing of milk from the United States.

Father Donnelly gave an anti-Socialist lecture in the Westholme Theatre on Monday night. William Manson, M.P.P., presided and Father Buno was on the platform. Questions were asked by Walter Shaw, W. Leblanc and Frank Messadat.

SEASONABLE SERVICE

We are equipped to serve you at any season of the year, but we can render you a special service at this particular season. Washable rugs, heavy blankets, dainty lace, curtains—all the unusual washing which every housewife feels compelled to do at this season, can be safely entrusted to us for laundering. We have special machinery for either wet or dry cleaning, and will return anything entrusted to us fresh and clean as new.

We also offer a carpet cleaning service which has given general satisfaction to our patrons.

Let us relieve you of this heavier work of housecleaning. A phone call will put you in touch with this labor-saving service.
