Mounties Lose None Old Time Efficiency.

The story of the quick arrest of an Eskimo murderer following the killing of a mounted policeman shows that the force has lost none of its old time efficiency. The red coat is still a terror to evil doers, especially in the northern wilds and by means of the coolness and bravery of the wearers good order and decent conditions obtain from one end of Canada to the other.

Premier Of Sweden Would Abolish War.

The Premier of Sweden would abolish war and every person in his right mind must feel sympathy for any movement having that end in view. The lessons of the late war have not yet been forgotten. Young men who fought overseas are still dying prematurely because of injuries received overseas. The world, even after all these years, has not yet returned to normal, nor will it for many years to come. If anything, the Swedish premier suggests can aid in preventing future wars it will receive general support. What people are not agreed upon is as to ways and means. The head of the Swedish Government still has faith in the labor movement to accomplish that which it failed to do on a former occasion.

Welcome First Of Federal Ministers.

The first of the federal ministers to visit Prince Rupert following the return of the Liberals to power will be Hon. W. R. Motherwell, minister of agriculture. He will be here on Friday, it is expected, and a luncheon in his honor will be held under the auspices of the Board of Trade on Saturday.

Just now Prince Rupert is looking to Ottawa for a great deal, especially in connection with railway and steamship development. As the minister of agriculture is a prominent member of the cabinet, being in charge of one of the most important departments, it will be to the advantage of this city to show him every courtesy, something which is usually done to members of any government, Liberal or Conservative. It is a great thing for citizens to be able to unite on occasions of this kind, forgetting party politics and remembering only that this is a Canadian minister of the Crown and one of the men who will be responsible for the policy of the government for the next few years.

Watching With Interest Irish Civil War.

Local people are watching with interest the progress of the Irish civil war and all who favor the continuation of law and order will wish to see a settlement of the difficulties at an early date. Looking at it from this distance, it seems as if De Valera and his group are absolutely in the wrong. An election was held recently in that country with the result that the people voted in favor of the Griffiths-Colins faction. This did not suit De Valera but under democratic institutions the minority must submit whether it likes the result or not. It is impossible to carry on a democracy if the minority is always to fight when defeated by the votes of the people.

Instead of leading a band of rebels, De Valera should have been the leader of the opposition in the newly formed Parliament at Dublin, a body which would have been in session now had not the recalcitrants tried to resort to force.

LASZLO SCHWARTZ GAVE RECITAL TO LADIES' MUSICAL

Laszlo Schwartz, the Hungarian violinist, gave a recital at the home of Mrs. J. C. McLennan, 430 Fourth Avenue West, under the auspices of the Ladies' Musical Club on Saturday afternoon. There were about 50 ladies present and the program was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated. Mr. Schwartz' numbers were divided into several groups which included Hungarian folk songs ending up with compositions of his own. Charles P. Balagano was accompanist. The arrangements were in charge of Mrs. W. E. Williams, president of the Ladies' Musical Club and Mrs. Thomas McClymont.

INDIAN CONCERT PORT ESSINGTON

Large Gathering of Natives from Whole District Attend Sale of Work.

The large hall at Port Essington was filled to capacity on Saturday night, July 22. Native people from all over the Skeena River district who are engaged at present in the fishing industry gathered for an enjoyable evening together. Much credit is due the Rev. Wm. H. Pierce, Mrs. Pierce and the committee of management for an event which was an unqualified success.

The Port Essington brass band was in attendance and gave several fine selections. The Sunday school children neatly dressed in white, sang choruses. Rev. Arthur Barner, superintendent of Methodist Indian Missions in Canada was called to act as chairman and briefly addressed the gathering. Fine talent was shown in the following items: Cornet solo, A. Stewart; vocal solo, Mrs. Morgan; Piano and cornet duet, Mr. and Mrs. J. Nelson; song, Mrs. Cadwalter; song, Dr. Wm. Sagar, and duet, Mrs. Sagar and Dr. Sagar. Samuel Wise, who is the oldest man in the village, spoke words of wisdom to the people.

Conducted Sale.

Then George Brooks of Port Simpson was called to the platform and with great skill acted as auctioneer in selling the goods which had been contributed to the work of the mission, not only by the natives but by the businessmen of the town. Not till 11:30 was this sale concluded, $238.00 approximately will thus be added to the fund which is being collected to install gasoline gas lights in the church buildings and to make other improvements on the property.

Mr. Pierce announced that 48 years ago the Port Essington mission was established. Many nationalities have been served. During that time the missionaries have officiated at 164 weddings, 294 baptisms and 316 funerals. It is an all peoples' mission.

SMITHERS

C. J. Broughton, government immigration officer of the state of Illinois, and C. H. Sylvester, author, and son spent several days in Smithers district last week. They were interested in getting information regarding agricultural opportunities in the Bulkley Valley.

A. E. Richards, fruit inspector from Summerland, visited experimental farms in the district last week. Despite the general absence of rain this season, he reports good results.

The baseball game last Sunday between Telkwa and Smithers resulted in victory for the former by a score of 17 to 12. Goovaere and Hunsperger were in the box for Telkwa and Gazeley, Arnold and Mutch each took a turn for Smithers.

Mrs. M. B. Wentzell, school teacher from Penticton, and Miss Nell Russel, from Vancouver, are visiting various points in the Bulkley Valley in the course of a tour of the north.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

July 24, 1912. Ex-Alderman Odium, of Vancouver, is a visitor to Stewart where he is examining mining properties. He expresses great confidence in the city of Prince Rupert and feels that it is destined to become a great business centre.

J. D. McNiven, federal government fair wage officer, arrived from the south on the Prince George this morning to look into the dispute pending between the laborers and the contractors, on the G. T. P. railway construction.

The Veterans' Brigade of the city elected officers at a meeting last night. They are: R. W. Cameron, Captain; J. H. McMullin and T. W. Saville, lieutenants; John Cargill, sergeant major. The Brigade is preparing to form a guard of honor on the occasion of the Duke of Connaught's visit here next month. Their strength is fifty-one.

PLANNING FOR BIG FLAG DAY

Elks Have Ambitious Program Under Way For August 9.

The Elks are planning an even more ambitious program than the highly successful one of last year for the Flag and Field Day celebration which will take place at Acropolis Hill on August 9. While the observance of the day is primarily for the benefit and entertainment of the children with patriotic speeches, parade, sports, and games, there is also an attractive program being lined up for the older people. The feature of the day, if present plans carry through, will be a baseball game between the Prince Rupert and Anyox Elks, the first out of town baseball visitors of the season. Besides this there will be a Senior Lacrosse game, Junior baseball and perhaps other important athletic events.

Committees have been appointed and are already working enthusiastically with a view to making the day a great success. The conveners are as follows:

- L. M. Fuller, chairman of general committee.
H. F. Glassey, secretary.
Parade, clowns and music—E. A. Donohoe and Fred Gilhuly.
Children's sports—F. W. Mackintosh.
Transportation—H. F. Fraser.
Advertising and program—F. Dibb.
Dance—Jarvis H. McLeod.
Booths and refreshments—R. Bryson.
City decoration and window displays—C. Welch.
Speeches and addresses—Milton Gonzales.
Boys' baseball—W. J. Cash.

MISSIONARY VISITS METHODIST STATIONS

Rev. Arthur Earrow of Calgary Speaks Appreciatively of Work Done.

Among the visitors to the city last evening was Rev. Arthur Barner of Calgary, superintendent of mission work among the natives, who has gone on to Port Simpson in connection with that work. Yesterday he took part in services at Port Essington where there were no less than sixty communicants and in the afternoon a reunion meeting was held at which he spoke.

Mr. Barner says the missionaries in this province are doing good work, as well as in other parts of Canada. This is especially true up the Skeena River where there was a great revival last winter as a result of which the moral and industrial life of the people at the canneries is appreciably improved.
