MISSING SKIPPER FOUND AT INVERNESS

C. LeBlanc, of Merry Maid, is Still Alive and Kicking Though Reported Lost.

The skipper of the fishing boat Merry Maid, C. LeBlanc, who was reported to have been lost at sea some two years ago, has turned up at the Inverness Cannery. LeBlanc is a well known waterfront character and has a great mind for shrimp fishing, in which industry he engaged around the bay for some years. He relates that, having been caught in a storm, his vessel was driven southwards and seeing that it was costing him nothing to travel he kept on that course looking over the scenery in the sunny climes. However, the Gull of the North struck him recently and here he is once again, and glad to get back.

HALIFAX EXPLOSION WRECKED HER NERVES

The reader will, no doubt, remember when a few years ago there was a collision in the Halifax, N. S., Harbor and one of the munition ships was blown up, causing great loss of life and laying a large portion of the city in ruins, and causing a great deal of suffering and distress among the inhabitants.

Mrs. Winfield Hill, now of Windsor, N. S., was living in Halifax at that time and went through this trying experience and the shock wrecked her nerves. She writes as follows:—"I was living in Halifax at the time of the explosion, and it wrecked my nerves so that I could not do my housework. I would take such nervous spells I would be under the doctor's care. I saw Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills advertised, so I took two boxes, and they helped me so much I took six more, and now I am completely relieved. I can recommend them to anyone suffering from heart and nerve trouble."

To all those who suffer from nervous shock we would recommend our

TAGGING TODAY FOR SOLDIERS' CEMETERY

Adair Car's Chapter, I.O.D.E., Has Arrangements Well in Hand.

The Ypres tag day, organized by the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire in aid of the soldiers' cemetery plots was given a good start early this morning and by 9 o'clock some 30 taggers were posted at various vantage points around the city. Luckily the weather cleared giving the willing helpers very favorable conditions for their worthy operations.

Mrs. C. L. Youngman, regent of the chapter, and Mrs. S. J. Evans, committee convener were responsible for the arrangements and are to be congratulated upon their organization of so worthy a cause.

The ladies who comprise the tag army are: Miss Winnie White, Miss Winnie Dill, Miss Violet Taylor, Miss Lillian Warrior, Miss K. Ryan, Miss Norma Rogers, Miss Alice Spencer, Miss Annie Kelly, Miss Leta Garoll, Mrs. Geo. Kerr, Mrs. Stanley Bennett, Miss Steen, Miss K. Collison, Miss C. Orchard, Mrs. J. W. Potter, Mrs. Stockdale, Miss Nickerson, Mrs. H. Hampton, Mrs. S. V. Cox, Mrs. Alexander, Miss Alice Monceour, Miss Lindland, Mrs. Strong, Miss R. Maloney, Miss Thelma Smith, and Miss Laura Frizzell.

A BUSINESS THAT IS PROGRESSIVE

Local Man Shows His Optimism in Practical Manner.

99 Taxi Company are now in a position to give the public of Prince Rupert the most efficient and prompt taxi service in British Columbia. With this object in view we have installed another new sedan embodying the acme of style and comfort. With this additional equipment the city of Prince Rupert will have the finest line of taxis in British Columbia outside of Vancouver and Victoria.

Our fleet of new cars consists of a seven passenger Master Six McLaughlin, a Studebaker touring car and a brand new Sedan. Having been in the taxi business for some fifteen years we know from experience just what the public should get in the way of prompt and courteous taxi service at moderate prices, and we are here to see that they get it.

Our cars are continually on duty and a call on the phone to 99, at any hour of the day or night, will be immediately responded to. Only experienced and competent drivers employed.

Wedding parties will do well to use our fleet of new cars and thus do credit to so momentous an occasion. At your service, 99 Taxi Company, Helgerson Bldg.
