There is to be a public rally for the library at the Empress Theatre tonight. Everyone interested either for or against the institution is asked to be present and hear Miss Stewart, who knows her subject well and is always interesting. It will be no dry as dust talk on organization, but an exposition of the library problem in connection with the life of the community.

Those who have not met Miss Stewart or heard her speak can make no mistake in attending this meeting. Those who have heard her will wish to hear her again.
