CHINA REALLY IS AWAKENING

Great Enmity Against Japan Being Manifested, Bishop Asserts—No Boxer War.

CHICAGO, May, 15.—China is becoming more self-assertive and self-dependent since the early days of the Washington Conference, says Bishop Francis J. McConnell, resident Bishop of Pittsburgh of the Methodist Episcopal Church who has been visiting in China recently.

Bishop McConnell is a member of the Educational Commission of the Missions Board of America and Great Britain who were sent to China six months ago. His statement was made public by a Committee on Conservation and Advance of the Methodist Church here.

"There are sure signs of the stirring of a Chinese public opinion and of Chinese national sentiment in advance of anything yet observed there," the Bishop said.

Speaking of the relations of the Japanese and Chinese, Bishop McConnell said: "The Japanese have made one notable failure and that is they have failed to make a friend of China. One does not have to be in a Chinese city long to note the intensity of the enmity of the Chinese toward the Japanese. He is utterly blind who rates this enmity as of no practical consequence in view of Japanese superiority in arms."

Boycott Weapon.
"The Chinese have found in the boycott a powerful weapon. With consummate genius for non-cooperation and passive resistance, China can free herself from all outside influence which she chooses to ban—when the time comes. And the time is coming soon in the years just ahead when China will inevitably come to a self-assertive, self-respecting independence of foreign nations. This is a plain-as-day fact that a stroller on Chinese streets cannot miss."

"I do not think there is danger of another Boxer uprising. At least if there is such a rising the weapons used will not be swords and guns."

Bishop McConnell said that the presence of an ever growing liberal sentiment—not necessarily a liberal party—in Japan is not a myth. "If Japan does not embark upon a career of imperialistic conquest of China in the next ten years it is not likely that she ever will," he declared. "By 1932 the democratic forces will probably be, if not

LIVER TROUBLE Bad Bilious Attacks

When your liver becomes sluggish and inactive your whole health suffers. Your bowels become constipated, the tongue coated, the breath bad, the stomach full and sick, and bilious spells occur on account of the liver holding back the bile which is so essential to promote the movement of the bowels, and the bile gets into the blood, instead of passing out through the usual channel.

The only way to keep the liver active and working properly, and thus get rid of the nasty bilious attacks, is to keep the bowels regular by using

MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS
They are purely vegetable, small and easy to take, work smoothly and gently, and there is nothing of the griping, weakening and sickening effects of the old-fashioned purgatives.

Mr. John S. Caron, Donavon, Sask., writes:—"I was troubled with my liver, and had severe bilious attacks. A friend advised me to try Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, so I took two vials and I have had no more attacks."

MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS
are 25¢ a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

irresistible at least so effective as to make it impossible for war plans to be carried through in the old high handed fashion.

RUSSIANS WILL NOT EAT CROWS

Famine Sections Infested With Big Black Scavenger Birds.

BUZLUK, Samara Province, Russia, May 15.—(The Associated Press.)—Eating crow seems literally to have been the one thing the famine-stricken peasants of the Volga have refused to do. During the worst periods of the hunger suffering, when cats, dogs, clay and even more ghastly food substitutes have been greedily devoured, the country has been full of big, black and gray crows.

So bold are these scavenger birds and apparently so unmolested by even the hungriest peasants, that some of them even perch upon and peck at meat supplies laden in sleds for transport from the railway stations to the villages.

Fattest in Country.

Some of them may have been eaten, but the correspondent saw literally hundreds of them at every place his train stopped from Samara on the way to Orenburg.

They were the fattest creatures in the famine area. Peasants with whom the correspondent talked on this apparent anomalous condition, in a region where one instance of cannibalism had been reported, admitted that crows might be as good to eat as dogs or cats, but advanced various vague reasons as to why these birds had not been slaughtered for food.

Some said there were no guns or ammunition to shoot them and that they were extremely hard to trap or catch. Others said they were "unclean."

AFFECTION OF SWEDES SHOWN FOR MONARCH

STOCKHOLM, May 15.—The slight but painful injury sustained by King Gustave of Sweden in an automobile accident near Nice on the French Riviera has revealed more the affection which the Swedes cherish for their monarch. The accident caused great anxiety throughout Sweden, even after it was officially announced that the King's hurts were not serious, for the King is rather frail and nearly 64 years of age.

King Gustave has chosen Nice as his favorite haunt and playground when he seeks relaxation and recuperation from the cares of state and he is one of the most popular and welcome guests of the resort. His amusements there included playing bridge with friends and tennis with Mlle Lenglen, the French champion, and Earl Balfour.

A Great Sport.
In spite of his age, King Gustave still plays a brilliant tennis game and is looked upon as one of the best amateur players of Sweden. A stiff game of tennis or bridge always puts him in good humor and his witticisms on these occasions are quoted throughout the Riviera.

The French newspapers have been publishing a story of a little incident that occurred at Nice to illustrate his wit. The King had Mlle. Lenglen a shis tennis partner and she was playing on the right hand side of the court. The King frequently encroached on her territory in his zeal to return the ball, whereupon Mlle. Lenglen admonished him to "keep to the left, Your Majesty," and once gave him a gentle push.

At the end of the game the King is reported to have said to his partner: "You remind me of my premier for you are always telling me to keep to the left."

Premier Branting of Sweden is head of the Socialist Party, which in parliamentary language is called "the left."

AUTO FIRE

The fire brigade answered a call at 11 o'clock this morning to extinguish a slight blaze which had broken out in an automobile owned by Jack Ross, taxi 75, standing outside the Empress Theatre. Upon arrival it was found that the carburetor had in some way become ignited. The flames were quickly subdued before any serious damage was done.

The Grand Trunk Pacific steamer Prince John, Captain Nadden, sailed on Saturday night with a good list of passengers and cargo of freight for the Queen Charlotte Islands. The vessel will go on to Vancouver, returning here by the same route about the middle of next week.

E. J. Skinner, who has been here with the Universal Trading Company for the last two weeks, left today on the eastbound train for Prince George.

If you wish to make yourself heard, do it through the newspaper with the guaranteed circulation. It is instantly audible.

FALSE ECONOMY

The family that does not provide for laundry service in the weekly budget is practicing false economy. Under our new plan, Laundry work by the pound, practically the entire family bundle washed and returned, damp almost ready for ironing, for $1.25.

This is the cheapest Laundry Service ever offered locally, and the husband who has the welfare of his family at heart cannot afford to pass this service up without serious consideration.

We have also our Soft Finish Service, where for a small additional charge, everything is dried and all flat pieces ironed and folded.

To those who can afford the small additional cost, this is the most complete service possible, without finishing the entire bundle. The cost will be found to be considerably below the prevailing price.

A trial will convince you of the merits of this service.
