RAIN NEEDED AT ONCE IF TERRACE CROPS TO BE SAVED THIS YEAR

F. W. Bohler, Kitsumkalum Rancher, Says Failure Already Apparent on the Uplands

Unless there is rain within the next ten days there will be general crop failure in the Terrace district, says F. W. Bohler, the well known Kitsumkalum farmer, who is spending the day in the city. It is already too late for the farms on the benches but if the much needed moisture comes soon the crops in the river bottoms may yet be saved. Already grain on the higher levels is heading out at 4 inches and the potatoes are hardly coming up at all. On Mr. Bohler's ranch, which is situated north of the railway in the Kitsumkalum River valley, the grain and potatoes are doing well although rain is needed there as well as elsewhere. Three quarters of the hay crop in the district is already in, potatoes and vegetables are depending on the advent of rain but the strawberry crop has practically been a complete failure. Only three or four ranchers in the entire district are having any strawberries to speak of and the most of these are at Kitsumkalum. Mr. Bohler intends to send his soil exhibit to the exhibition this year and Mrs. Bohler will come down in September to look after it. She arrived in the city on last night's train and will return tonight.

SMITHERS

Jack Joseph, who purchased a Ford last week, has the distinction of being the first Indian in the district to own an automobile.

A congregational reception was held on Thursday night in the Smithers Methodist Church in honor of the new pastor. Short addresses were given by Rev. W. C. Mawhinney, of Telkwa, J. B. Cousins, of Bonston, Rev. M. W. Lees and Dr. J. H. White.

The second annual picnic for the Bulkley Valley hospital will be held on July 30 at Lake Kathleen. A big program is being prepared and a great attendance is expected.

It is now too late to save the hay crop in the Bulkley Valley and estimates of the production here this year run about a third of the normal crops. In several places there will be a better yield but, as a whole, the crop will be light and short while many fields will not be cut on account of the poor growth. The drought of several weeks is the cause.

Charles Black, an old timer of the district, returned last week from Oklahoma to look over his property here. He is accompanied by Mrs. Black.

Charles Reid, J. H. Hetherington, T. A. McMartin and L. B. Warner made the 140-mile trip to Old Woman Lake last week on a fishing expedition. In Bulkley Lake they had a fair measure of success but low water was a disadvantage.

Phil Hoskins has returned to Fort Saskatchewan after having spent a brief holiday here with his parents.

od is reached, she stands on the threshold of marital happiness, convinced that life is well worth the struggle after all. Unique in theme, the picture has many little ironical twists that lay bare the sham of society and arouse sympathy for the girl who is thrust out into the world to battle alone against its vicious elements. Every advantage has been given the production in the way of sets and photography, and it is evident that both the director and the cast worked diligently and sincerely to keep the play true to life in every detail.

RAN TO MEET WIFE BUT MET WITH SHOCK

One of Wonderful Scenes in "The Lotus Eaters" Gives Idea of Play

Jacques Lenoi ran rapidly up the stairs of his villa on the shores of the Mediterranean. He had been cruising in search of his health, but now joy was uttermost to him. There was not only his wife to see; there was the little stranger who appeared since his departure and of whose event he had been informed by wireless. He had not sent word that he was returning, for he wanted to surprise his wife.

His appearance shocked the maid, who turned involuntarily toward a closed door. Lenoi walked toward it eagerly, but the maid sprang in front of him as if to prevent him from entering the other room.

He thrust her aside, but at that moment the door opened and Lenoi's wife, carrying a tray, backed out of the room, banter on her lips. Lenoi stood as if petrified at the sight he beheld within the room.

As his wife turned and saw him the smile froze on her face, the tray dropped to the floor and she shrieked. Lenoi sprang toward her with clenched fists, but his arms dropped impotently to his sides. Sudden determination clouded his face and, seizing a pistol, he aimed it at the persons in the other room.

Galvanized into action, his wife sprang in front of him.

"I love him; don't shoot," she pleaded.

There was agony on Lenoi's face as he lowered the pistol. Then he hurled the weapon upon the floor, brushed his wife aside, and seizing his young son, hurried to his yacht. Then began one of the strangest cruises in history, for it was twenty-five years before his son left the vessel or beheld the sight of a woman.

Thrilling incidents, like this crowd "The Lotus Eater," starring John Barrymore and personally directed by Marshall Neilan, which is to be seen here this week.

NEW FERRY FOR VICTORIA ROUTE

Travel from Washington to Vancouver Island necessitates Improved Service.

VICTORIA, July 10.—So great has been the travel between Vancouver Island and the mainland by way of the new automobile ferry which was started this year, that it has been decided to operate the ferry all winter and to have a fine new fast ferry boat built for next year that will carry forty cars at one time.

The ferry was put on at the instance of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce and Development League, arrangements being made through the secretary, George I. Warren. The Victoria people paid the cost of advertising the route. They put up signs painted on circular saws every mile between Vancouver and Seattle along the highway. On Saturday last one ferry boat handled 40 cars and 310 passengers and the following day 33 cars and 293 passengers and the smaller ferry carried 24 cars on Saturday and 34 on Sunday.

The ferry lands the passengers from Anacortes at Sidney, about twenty miles from Victoria. Formerly the business was handled only by the C. P. R. boats and the Port Angeles steamer with the result that hundreds were disappointed at not being able to cross to the Island.

MINISTERS VISITING NORTH MINING CAMPS

Were at Stewart Yesterday and at Anyox and Alice Arm Today

After having spent the day in the city, the provincial government ministerial party, joined by Fred Stork, M.P. for Skeena, sailed Saturday evening by the Prince Rupert for Stewart. At Point Ramsden, where Observatory Inlet and Portland Canal meet, the launch "Awake," belonging to H. F. Kergin, M.L.A., was awaiting, and the member for Atlin joined the party and proceeded with it to Stewart. Returning yesterday afternoon to the "Awake," the whole party disembarked from the Prince Rupert and were taken to Anyox and Alice Arm, which points are being visited today. It is expected the party will return to Prince Rupert tomorrow from the north by the Chelohsin, leaving on the evening train for the interior.
