

Anyox Won Both Dominion Day Baseball Games from Ketchikan—One Was Close

Anyox won both games of baseball from Ketchikan last Saturday at the Anyox Dominion Day celebration. The first match, played in the morning, was a closely contested ten inning affair which resulted in a score of 4 to 3 with the smaller town batters pulling over the winning tally in the tenth. The evening match was easily won by Anyox by a score of 7 to 1.

The morning session was just as good and tight a game as the expectant fans could have wished for. Fitzpatrick and Greenwell comprised the Anyox battery and Hallson and Casey took similar roles for Ketchikan. Both pitchers were hit moderately hard, Ketchikan finding Fitzpatrick for nine hits while Anyox only got six off Hallson. Fitzpatrick had the better support and was able to tighten up in the benches. He struck out twelve men, three in the fifth inning. The game was featured by much sensational fielding on the part of both teams, several grand stand catches being made in the outfield for either side. The Anyox boys ran wild on the bases, at times, to their own disadvantage a golden opportunity being lost in the third when Downs started home on a dropped third strike when the bases were full and only one man was down. Casey making an unassisted double play. Ketchikan made six errors and Anyox four.

The score by innings:

Strikeouts—By Fitzpatrick, 12; Hallson, 3.
Two base hits—Anyox, Downs, and Cy Greenwell; Ketchikan, Miller, Harris and Williams.
Bases on Balls—Off Fitzpatrick, 2; Hallson, 2.
Umpires, Davis and Staepoole.

Evening Game.
The evening game was played in a light rain which, with the dusk, made matters rather difficult. Draudson and Greenwell made up the Anyox battery, while Anderson and Casey officiated for Ketchikan. The Anyox boys gathered two runs in their half of the fourth, three in the sixth and two in the eighth. Good pitching and fielding held Ketchikan to one run which they got in the sixth when Kubeley doubled, went to third on Miller's single and scored when Mealey fumbled Casey's grounder. Draudson was anxious then and gave Anderson a walk filling the bases. He then tightened up, however, and retired the side by striking out Primavera. Sherman played a star game in the centre garden getting five put outs out of six chances, the only one he missed being Miller's hit to right centre which he knocked down but could not hold.

Score by innings:
Anyox 0 0 0 2 0 3 0 2 x—7
Ketchikan got five hits and made two errors, Anyox eleven and one.
Strike-outs—By Anderson, 1; Draudson, 5.
Bases on Balls—Off Draudson, 2; Anderson, 1.
Double play—Cy Greenwell unassisted.
Two base hits—Kubeley and Harris.
The Anyox baseball team went to Ketchikan on the same boat that took the Alaskan boys home and played a return match yesterday.

GROTTO WON EASY MATCH

Intermediate Fixture Last Night Resulted in 7-15 Defeat for Sons of Canada.

Excelled by the Grotto in hitting and fielding, about all the Sons of Canada could regularly do in last night's Intermediate League baseball game was make errors and they were defeated by a score of 18 to 7. The Sons put up a poor exhibition indeed and their field seemed full of holes with the hits going through like water. The Grotto did not do so badly and had the best of it all the way except in the fifth when the Sons, through two hits, several walks and three errors on the part of the Grotto by Gilmour, McGowan and Willisroft, made all their seven runs. The Grotto runs were pretty well distributed throughout and they got hits all the way. Brennan, a newcomer from Ketchikan, pitched for the Sons. He fooled the Grotto once or twice but they soon got onto him. Brennan lacked control and walked several men besides making many wild pegs.
B. Graham was the Sons catcher. E. Warren, pitcher, and George Hill, catcher, comprised the Grotto battery. The game went seven innings, James McAlenan being balls and strikes umpire and Jack Ratcliff, bases.

The teams lined up as follows:
Sons of Canada—Brennan, p; D. Graham, c; Frank Morrison, 1b; George Blythe, 2b; George Mitchell, ss; R. McDonald, 3b; R. Rudland, cf; R. Publicover, cf; John Michaloff, lf.
Grotto—E. Warren, p; George Hill, c; P. McGowan, 1b; B. Barrie, 2b; Gilmour, ss; Sam Handenschild, 3b; W. E. Willisroft, cf; S. Butters, cf; James Ross, lf.
Score by innings:
K. of C. 0 0 0 0 7 0 0—7
Grotto 1 2 5 5 3 2 0—18

with its clinging weeds. Any of these places are liable to give the unwary swimmer an attack of cramps. If a person is seized with cramps he should keep cool. The affected place should be rubbed and stretched. If caught in the limb, turn up the foot, straighten the leg, stretch the muscles and kick the surface of the water until they relax. Bathing in quiet secluded places should be avoided as should accident occur with no help near a very obvious state of affairs may follow.

A swimmer should not stand or wait at the water's edge until the warmth of the body has passed off. The mouth and nostrils should be cleansed before entering the water for breathing will then be easy, natural and unimpeded. The breath should not be caught suddenly or spasmodically or short inhalations and exhalations made. Persons unaccustomed to cold water bathing should not stay in too long at first. People whose hands, feet and lips show purple quickly should indulge in bathing very moderately as this invariably shows some heart weakness. Persons subject to giddiness or faintness or who suffer from palpitation or other affections of the heart should not bathe without first consulting a qualified physician.

People who are troubled by any of the sympathetic senses, namely—the eyes, the ears, the nose and the throat, should dive sparingly, or better still not at all. Diving is particularly hard on the ear drums, concussion by shock and pressure of the water being harmful. Greased cotton wool or ear plugs are good safeguards against this. It is well in diving to remember a few gentle details. One should never venture to dive in "foreign" water. By this, is meant places where the depth is unknown. Then again care should be taken that there are no hidden obstacles, a submerged log, a rock or a protruding pier.

Swim around to the point where you intend making the dive and gauge or sound the depth, always remembering that it is better to be safe than sorry.

In diving from any height a head piece of some kind should be worn. This tends to break the fall and adds greatly to the pleasure, eliminating that sting which all will doubtless recall. A simple rule to the secret of always making a correct neat dive is to place a piece of paper between the toe of the right and left foot and leave the board with both feet together, remembering while in the air to keep them closed, then imagine a hole in the water and enter it so that the body will not touch either side of the imaginary hole. A little practice and anyone can easily become real proficient at neat diving, after which the fancy or special dives can be acquired very readily. Most of the trouble in diving is with the limbs bending with a great splash. If we bear in mind the simple piece of paper, a perfect neat dive will result almost automatically.

If we remember a few of these "Do's and Don't's" Davy Jones won't get our goat for he'll never find out where we keep it.

FALCONS GOT LONG END OF A 36 TO 2 SCORE OVER SCOUTS

The Falcons batted the Boy Scouts all over the lot in last night's Juvenile League baseball game the one-sided score of 36 to 2 being the result of the Seventh Street youngsters' meeting. W. Wrathall made two home runs and Vincent Weagher, one. It took two umpires to keep the game in order, J. Sims, balls and strikes, and E. McLean, bases, but the scorekeeper was the most hard-worked official of the game. Leo McKinnon, pitcher, and E. Yager, C. Cameron, E. Green and D. Stalker, and two catchers, C. Thompson and G. E. Manson, in the course of the evening.
