Nina Gurvich Outpointed By Miles Murphy at Juneau—Challenge Issued For Dido Gurvich

Nina Gurvich of this city lost the decision to Miles Murphy of Juneau in a six-round boxing bout which featured a card staged on Saturday night in Juneau, according to telegraphic advices received here. Murphy is understood to have weighed in several pounds heavier than Gurvich.

Jack Gurvich announced this morning that he had issued a challenge to Murphy to meet Dido Gurvich, the proposal being to hold the bout at Juneau on New Year's Eve. Dido, who has been out of the ring for the last two or three years, is now training for a come-back.

COHEN HAS FIRST FILM

Veteran Stage Entertainer Featured in "Phantom President" at Capitol Theatre

"The Phantom President," a political comedy featuring George M. Cohan, noted actor, author, producer and popular song composer, Claudette Colbert and Jimmy Durante, will be the feature offering on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here for the first of this week. It is Cohan's first talking picture although he has been a popular stage personality for three decades.

The picture deals with a presidential campaign in which the discover a medicine-show barker oozing personality, who is the exact double for their man. They press him into service to impersonate the candidate and win votes until an amusing dramatic climax alters everything.

Cohan plays the dual role of candidate and his double. Claudette Colbert is the daughter of a president of whom Cohan is enamored. Durante is the barker buddy.

The entire story is done in a lightful comedy vein.
