GIFTS THAT LAST

Jack Miller sailed last night for the south. He expects to be gone several months on an extended trip.

Provincial Constable Harry Martin sailed last night on the Chelohsin for Anyox. He will be back tomorrow.

Raymond Fisher returned home by last night's train after having spent a couple of months on the prairies.

Major J. H. McMullin, government agent, sailed for the south last night and will be gone a week on business.

Chief A. C. Minty of the provincial police returned last night on the Chelohsin after having spent a fortnight's holiday spent in the south.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McVain were passengers from the East who arrived on last night's train and took passage for the south on the Prince Rupert. Mr. McVain is C. N. R. travelling passenger agent at Toronto.

The G. T. P. steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. Donald, was late in returning from Stewart last night and did not get in until 1:30 this morning, sailing shortly afterwards for the south. The delay was caused on account of unloading a record quantity of freight, 105 tons, at Stewart. The mining camp is suffering from the scarcity of longshoremen.

S. Osborne, general passenger agent for the C. N. R. at Vancouver, who arrived from the south on Saturday, went out on the Montreal Board of Trade special train on Saturday night. C. K. Howard, general tourist agent from Toronto, was official representative of the company on the tour. W. J. Moffatt, city passenger agent, Toronto, was also with the party.

HYDROPLANE STAYING HERE FOR REPAIRS

Expert Will Arrive From Calgary on Wednesday Night to Supervise Overhauling of Engine

The R.E.I. & L. Co.'s hydroplane Hazelton will remain in Prince Rupert for the next week while the engine of the machine undergoes an overhaul, an expert being due from Calgary on Wednesday night to supervise the job. After the work is done it is possible that some long distance flights may be made, local citizens having signified their intention of engaging the machine.

Len Bell and George Beirnes leave tonight for Hazelton to look after some hunters from the southern States who are coming out from the Ground Hog country with full bags of sheep, goat and grizzly bear. The R.E.I. & L. Co. has been in charge of their transportation arrangements with its pack horses. Mr. Beirnes and Mr. Bell will return to the city on Wednesday night.

ROBERT W. GURD OF CASSIAR WAS WEDDED LAST WEEK

A wedding of interest to friends of the groom in this district took place last Thursday morning at St. Paul's Church, Vancouver, when Miss Lillian Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Thompson, Bridgewater, N. S., became the bride of Robert W. Gurd, son of the late Rev. Robert W. Gurd and Mrs. Gurd, formerly of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Harold King, the bride was attended by her niece, Miss Margaret Putnam, and the groom was supported by his brother, Arthur Gurd. After their honeymoon, which is being spent in Victoria, Seattle and Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Gurd will reside at 3363 Thirty-Sixth Avenue West, Kerrisdale. Mr. Gurd was engaged this summer as accountant at the Cassiar cannery.
