DIDO GURVICH ISSUES CHALLENGE TO WINDLE

On behalf of Dido Gurvich, who is now training for a come-back after having been out of the ring for some three years, a challenge was issued this morning to Benny Windle to meet him on winner take all or any terms that Windle may desire. Gurvich is ready to fight at any time, it was stated. A bout between Windle and Dido Gurvich would undoubtedly create a great deal of interest among pugilistic fans of the city.

Kaiens Defeat Grotto in Senior Game—Grotto Winner in Junior

Kaiens defeated Grotto by a score of 15 to 13 in last night's senior indoor box lacrosse game at the Exhibition Hall to get revenge for their reverse in the opening game of the season last Thursday night. The game was an exciting and spectacular one and was witnessed with much interest by a fair-sized crowd of fans of this popular new local sport. Young Chuck Woods for the Grotto was the star player on the floor.

In the junior game Grotto defeated Kaiens by a score of 9 to 5, this also being a fast and spirited affair. Frank Derry for the Grotto was the outstanding player.

A report from the finance committee recommending that a refund of $51.66 be made to the Capitol Theatre in view of an overcharge made for water owing to a faulty meter was adopted by the city council at its meeting last night. Payment of the refund was also recommended by the Board of Works which had investigated the matter.
