by both chiropractors and medi-cos and it is said that when the committee sat in camera to draft its report there was very vigorous difference of opinion, resulting however in a report that brought about an amendment to the Medical Act providing for a more liberal Board of Examiners for those of the chiropractic cult. The examining Board is now to consist of two chiropractors and two medical men and to be appointed by the Senate of the University and the fifth member to be chosen by the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeal.

Dr. King Missed

Looking down from the gallery not could not help but miss the genial smile of the late senior Minister of Public Works, Dr. King, and the somewhat dour countenance of the late Attorney-General. The latter, however, was seated in the front row immediately adjoining the Minister of Finance and his contributions to the debate proved that he has not lost his cunning as a powerful debater.
The new recruits of Premier Oliver in the persons of Mr.
Manson and Dr. Sutherland seem to bear up well in their first session as Ministers of the Crown. As a private member Mr. Sutherland was rather quiet, but as a minister he seems to be well able to take care of himself and of his legislation and to be able to maintain his well deserved popularity. Mr. Manson made good as Speaker and as the man responsible for about seventy-five per cent of the legislation that comes into the House he seems to know what he is doing all the time.

One wonders sometimes if the distribution of labor is quite fair. The Attorney-General and Minister of Labor carries a very heavy load, but the celerity and dispatch with which he handles his work warrants one in concluding that with him as with Dr. Sutherland, the Prime Minister has chosen well.

Master Parliamentarian Premier Oliver is still the master parliamentarian and strategist of the House—always on the alert—always in the House, keen on the rules of order and always ready to amend the motions of his opponents to good advantage. John Oliver is well deserving of his followers and of the country. He can look back upon this session with good deal of satisfaction. He met all comers in his usual frank and honest manner. He held the House well in hand and with his colleagues was responsible for much legislation that will prove of value in the development of this pioneer province.

ANNUAL REPORT
OF ROYAL BANK

Particularly Strong Statement Issued to Shareholders—Banking Much Improved

The Royal Bank of Canada has forwarded to shareholders a particularly strong statement for the fiscal year to November 30.

There will be satisfaction among business and mercantile interests to learn that outstanding features of the report show that trade generally has evidently improved to a considerable extent. The leading banks are now preparing to handle more business and as a result, the Royal, out of total assets of $479,362,- 366, has liquid or immediately available assets of $216,918,331, at which level they are equal to 49.37% of liabilities to the public.
This must of necessity be gratifying to the shareholders and is bound to prove of special benefit to the business interests of the country.

Business Back to Normal

Ever since the close of the war there has been a steady reduction of the business undertaken on behalf of the government, and holdings of Dominion and Provincial Government securities are down to $22,950,221 a reduction of over $1,500,000. Canadian Municipal securities total $7,991,- 027; Railway and other bonds, debentures and stocks $13,162,668, and call loans not exceeding 30 days $18,610,000.

The Profit and Loss Account shows that earnings during the year have permitted of the payment to shareholders of the usual dividends and bonus, leaving balance to be carried forward into the new year of $1,007,514.

The Presbyterian Church was well filled with children of the of 7.30 and 9.30. A splendid program was presented after which Santa Claus paid his visit and dispensed gifts and sweets to the youngsters.

Rev. Dr. H. R. Grant presided and the program comprised a piano solo by Miss May Clarke, recitations by Ned McLeod, Sheila Stuart, Hilda Murray, Ian Murray, Helen McLeod and Garfield McKinley, solos by Nellie Clarke, Claire Williams and Enid Williams, and brief but appropriate speeches by T. B. Johnson, D. C. McEae and U. S. Consul E. A. Wakefield.

MOTHER-IN-LAW IN SAME BED RESULTS IN DIVORCE ACTION

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—Five of her husband's relatives living in their honeymoon flat was bad enough for Mr. and Mrs. Edgar F. Heizer, Mrs. Heizer told Judge Steffen in divorce court today, but when the mother-in-law insists on sleeping in the same bed with the newly-weds she thought the limit had been reached.

"Our honeymoon flat became so public I couldn't take a bath without 'embarrassment,'" Mrs.
Heizer explained. "From June 1, 1919, when we were married, to June 28, my mother-in-law insisted on sleeping with us."

VANDERHOOF

mas entertainment took place in the school house last Friday night. Those taking part included A. J. Richards, Muriel Mitchell, Clara Johnson, Eileen Mitchell, Miss Morrow, Jean Mc-Geachy, Gladys Bung and Aleida Mitchell. There were also choruses and drills and a sketch in which groups of pupils from the various classes took part.

in the Vanderhoof Presbyterian Church on Sunday night. Rev. E.
B. Atwell delivered the Christmas sermons, besides rendering a violin solo, the choir sang
