OFFER PRIZES TO LOCAL BOYS

Suit of Clothes to the Boys who
Best Impersonates Jackie
Coogan.

PECK'S BAD BOY TONIGHT.

The inimitable comedy Peck's Bad Boy is to be shown at the Westholme Theatre tonight and tomorrow and the management is offering to young boys three prizes for the best impersonation or imitation of Jackie Coogan, the boy in the film.

Jackie was "The Kid" in Charlie Chaplin's famous comedy of that name. Since that he has been famous.

The picture as a whole, is a splendid accomplishment. The most amusing and interesting episodes from the celebrated works of Governor George Peck have been incorporated in the screen version. The subtitles, which were written by Irvin S. Cobb, fairly snap with the brilliant humor of that clever writer, and Jackie Coogan's interpretations of the part of the mischievous youngster who is constantly getting himself and others into trouble is one of the most pleasing contributions than anyone—man, woman or child—has yet given to the screen.

In "Peck's Bad Boy" Jackie Coogan is the same sprightly, lovable little chap that he was in "The Kid." In some ways he may be a little naughtier, but he gives a portrayal of a real American boy who, despite his shortcomings, wins the sympathy of all.

"Peck's Bad Boy" is brimming over with laughs and is the conveyor of not a few thrills. It is a credit to the whole motion picture industry, and a genuine triumph for the child star. It is a picture that all should see.

VETERANS' VALENTINE DANCE LAST EVENING

Annual Affair Was Usual Big Success—Decorations Were a Feature—Music by Band.

The Great War Veterans' annual Valentine Ball held last night in St. Andrew's Hall was the usual big success. There were 320 persons in attendance and all had a very enjoyable time. The hall was gaily decorated with flags, pennants and Valentine adornments and presented a pretty scene indeed.

Music was provided by the Great War Veterans Band under the leadership of J. Gawthorne. There were twelve pieces and the music was excellent.

Refreshments were served to several sittings commencing at 11:30 in the supper rooms, Mrs. Carrall being in charge in her usual capable manner.

God, S. P. McMorris was master of ceremonies and R. James, Norman Short and Mr. Stevens were on the floor. The committee in charge comprised R. James, S. L. Warrior and R. Sims.

The association wishes to extend its thanks to the many who assisted in the making of the affair such a success.
