FOUR HORSEMEN GREAT PICTURE

Wonderful Novel by Vincent Blasco Ibanez Makes a Thrilling Photoplay.

"The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," the film adaptation by Metro of the novel of the same name by Vincent Blasco Ibanez is the week-end attraction at the Westholme Theatre. The novel, published in 1919, is one of the most famous of the century; the screen portrayal is one of the most powerful pictures ever seen here. It is a very faithful interpretation of the great story and the producers have fully availed themselves of the opportunities offered for colorful scenes. The novel has gained rather than lost through its screen adoption and Prince Rupert theatregoers are being offered the best picture that has been presented here in months. The feature opens tonight and there will be a matinee tomorrow afternoon besides the evening performance.

Class by Itself.
It is a ten reel picture with not a single dull foot in it—filled with action from beginning to end. From an educational point of view, historically and geographically, the picture is in a class by itself. The usual criticism of a moving picture is that of improbability but this cannot be said of "The Four Horsemen." At the same time it maintains its keen interest throughout. Therefore, it is an unusual picture.

Rudolph Valentino is the leading man and he is surrounded by an all star cast of splendid and well known actors.

War Topic Relieved.
As far as the play itself is concerned, the name "Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," almost seems somewhat of a misnomer. The book is primarily a war story but the picture just emphasizes the South American portion sufficiently to relieve the war topic. Like the book, the picture is a tragedy and its climax, in a soldiers' burial grounds in Flanders where the hero lies "among the crosses row by row," brings a final fearful thrill that will not be forgotten soon.

All in all, it is a play that cannot be too highly recommended and it is one that none should miss seeing.

RUSSIAN PEASANT ALTHOUGH ILLITERATE UNDERSTANDS MONEY

Difficult to Cheat Him Even in Complicate Rouble Notes.

KAZAN, Aug. 3.—The Russian peasant, upon intimate contact, has been found to be not so illiterate or so stupid as it has been the habit to represent him. While he may not always be able to read, he possesses a natural shrewdness and intelligence which stands him in good stead. A practical common sense is often a good substitute for book learning.

American Relief Administration workers have had much to do with the Russian peasant in their various activities in these lands, and have come to regard him with respect.

"How is it," one of the Russian interpreters was asked, "that although these peasants cannot read and write they seem to be able to make accurate computations, and to master the intricacies of the Russian currency? They seem to understand perfectly even the new bank notes in which those marked 100 rubles equal those put out last year which were worth 1,000,000?"

"They appreciate the value of stupidity," was the answer. "They like to appear simple. They like to be simple. It is partly a pose with them, but it has its practical side, too. They appear guileless and manage to drive a good bargain because their very guilelessness allays the suspicion of the person with whom they are dealing."

Not So Stupid.
"I hand them a 1,000,000 rouble"

'DR. FOWLER'S'

Saved The Lives of Four Children

Diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera infantum and summer complaint are responsible for more deaths, especially among children, during the summer months than any other form of disease. According to statistics, in the City of Toronto alone, in the past five years out of 1008 deaths of children, from diarrhoea, 757 died during the four summer months. It therefore behooves every mother to look after her children on the first sign of any looseness of the bowels by using Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, a remedy that has been on the market for the past 77 years, and has been proven to be the best there is.

Mrs. Harold Sellers, Penfield, N.B., writes:—"Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry saved the lives of four of my children when all other remedies failed. It stopped the vomiting and terrible diarrhoea with which they were troubled. I will always recommend it, and now always have a bottle on hand in case of emergency."

ed by an all star cast of splendid and well known actors. The scene of "The Four Horsemen" takes in two continents—Europe and South America—with the battlefields of France, the cities of Paris and Buenos Ayres and the Argentine plantation some of the interesting particular locations. The characters are the descendants of an old Spanish centaur of South America whose daughter had married a Frenchman and German respectively. The story centres principally about the grand children and their adventure on returning to Europe where they took part in the conflict.

note, 'What is this,' they ask. I tell them that it is a million. They accept it. But try handing them a 100,000 rouble note and say it is a million. They will shake their heads. You may point out that it has eighers following the figure. They will not accept it. 'But' you persist, 'You cannot read, why do you think I am lying to you.' 'But I have never seen that sort of a million before,' they answer and will not take it.

"You take a paper to a peasant to be signed. He looks at it and asks what it is all about. You read it to him. He nods but protests that he cannot write. 'Let someone else write my name on it,' he says and later he may repudiate the agreement, saying that he never signed it and did not even know what it contained."

"I believe that many of them who can both read and write are careful to conceal that knowledge, believing that it will be to their advantage to do so. They are not so stupid as they appear."

NOTICE.

IN THE MATTER of an application for the issue of a fresh certificate of title to an undivided two thirds (2/3) interest in and to Lots 23 and 24, Block 35, Lots 23 and 24, Block 36, and Lots 18, 21 and 22, Block 21, all in Section 5, City of Prince Rupert, B.C., Map 923.

Satisfactory proof of the loss of the certificate of title covering the above lands, having been produced it is my intention to issue, after the expiration of one month from the first publication hereof, a fresh certificate of title in the name of Robert Smith and Henry Smith, which certificate of title is dated 19th November, 1912, and is numbered 2321-1, dated at the Land Registry Office, Prince Rupert, B.C., this 6th day of July, 1922.

H. F. MACLEOD,
Registrar of Titles.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

In the Matter of the Administration Act and In the Matter of the Estate of John Post, Deceased.

TAKE NOTICE that in order of His Honour F. McE. Young, made the 10th day of July, A.D. 1922, was appointed Administrator of the Estate of John Post, deceased, and all parties having claims against the said estate are hereby required to furnish same, properly verified to me, on or before the 11th day of August, A.D. 1922, and all parties indebted to the estate are required to pay the amount of their indebtedness to me forthwith.

JOHN H. McEULLEN,
Official Administrator.
Dated this 11th day of July, 1922.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENTS

Minimum price of first-class and reduced to $2 an acre; second-class to $1.50 an acre.

Pre-emption now confined to surveyed lands only.

Records will be granted covering any land suitable for agricultural purposes and which is non-timber land.

Partnership pre-emption abolished, but parties of not more than four may arrange for adjacent pre-emption with joint residence, but each making necessary improvements on respective claims.

Pre-emptors must occupy claims for five years and make improvements to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivation of at least 5% before receiving Crown Grant.

Where pre-emptor in occupation non-partnership improvements, he may be cause of ill-health, or other cause be granted intermediate certificate of improvement and transfer his claim.

Records without permanent residence may be bought, provided applicant makes improvements to extent of $250 per annum and records same each year. Failure to make improvements or record same will operate as forfeiture. Title cannot be obtained in less than 5 years, and improvements of $150 per acre, including 5 acres cleared and cultivated and residence of at least 2 years are required.

Pre-emptor holding Crown Grant may re-claim other pre-emption, if he requires land in conjunction with his farm without actual occupation, provided statutory improvements made and residence maintained on Crown Grant land.

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homestead, title to be obtained after fulfilling residential and improvement conditions.

For granting industrial purposes areas exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or company.

Mills, factories and industrial sites on timber land not exceeding 40 acres may be purchased; conditions include payment of stumpage.

Natural hay meadows inaccessible by existing roads, may be purchased conditional upon construction of a road to them. Rebate of one-half of cost of road, not exceeding half of purchase price, is made.

PRE-EMPTORS' FREE GRANTS ACT.
The scope of this Act is enlarged to include all persons joining and serving with His Majesty's Forces. The time within which the heirs or devisees of a deceased pre-emptor may apply for title under the Act is extended from for one year from the death of such person, as formerly, until one year after the conclusion of the great war. This privilege is also made retroactive.

No fees relating to pre-emption are due or payable by soldiers on pre-emption recorded after June 30, 1918. Taxes are remitted for five years.

Provision for return of moneys accrued due and been paid since August 4, 1914, on account of payments, fees or taxes on soldiers' pre-emption.

Interest on agreements to purchase town or city lots held by members of Allied Forces, or denizens, acquired direct or indirect, remitted from enlistment to March 31, 1920.

SUB-PURCHASERS OF CROWN LANDS.
Provision made for issuance of Crown grants to sub-purchasers of Crown Lands, acquiring rights from purchasers who failed to complete purchase, involving forfeiture, on fulfillment of conditions of purchase, interest and taxes. Where sub-purchasers do not claim whole of original parcel, purchase price due and taxes may be distributed proportionately over whole area. Applications must be made by May 1, 1920.

GRAZING.
Grazing Act, 1919, for systematic development of livestock industry provides for grazing districts and range administration under Commission. Annual grazing permits issued based on numbers ranged, priority for established owners. Block-owners may form Associations for range management. Free, or partially free, permits for settlers, campers or travellers, up to ten head.
