SIXTY MILLION TO BE EXPENDED ON WATER FOR BOSTON

BOSTON, Mar. 2.—Construction of a reservoir of four hundred billion gallons capacity on the Ware River at Enfield is proposed as necessary to insure adequate water supply to Boston and communities within a ten mile radius in a report which has been submitted to the legislature. Several small towns and villages would have to be wiped out. The cost was estimated at $60,000,000.

A committee of the State Department of Health and the Metropolitan Water and Sewage Board, which made the report, recommended also the immediate construction of a tunnel from Wachusett reservoir to the Ware River, with a diversion dam at Goldbrook; the construction as soon as practicable of a plant for developing water power at the Wachusett end of the tunnel and arrangements for pumping water for the use of the city of Worcester. The proposed tunnel would be twelve miles long with a capacity of five hundred million gallons daily, and would run through rock at a depth in some places of 800 feet. The committee estimated its cost at twelve million dollars.

LASSIES MUST WEAR LONGER DRESSES

Salvation Army Would Have Them Seven Inches From Ground.

According to an order recently issued by Commissioner William Pearl, Salvation Army leader in 15 American Midwest states, the skirts of the Salvation Army lasses must be not more than seven inches above the street level. "A few years ago we were trying to persuade our women to wear them shorter," said Commissioner Pearl in commenting upon the order. "The skirt that trails in the dirt gathering germs is a menace to its wearer's health, but the skirt that flaps around the knees is pretty much of a menace to the modesty of the woman who wears it. The skirt is about the only thing which doesn't appear to be coming down these days and a back to normalcy drive on the too short dress will do a lot to protect the morals of the rising generation."

Commissioner Pearl stated that the order would effect every Salvation army member in 77 countries and colonies where the organization operates with the possible exception of China and Japan where most of the women wear trousers.

HAD HER THERE

"But smoking is one of my greatest pleasures," he protested.
"Well, you ought to give it up because I want you to. I would do as much for you."
"Are you sure of that?" he asked eagerly.
"Why, of course I am. Just tell me something I do that you want me to stop."
"Well," he said, with firmness, "you might stop objecting to my smoking."

HIS LITTLE JOB.

TWO WOMEN ON RUSSIAN SOVIET

Practically All Bolshevik Leaders Members of Committee of 380.

MOSCOW, Mar. 2.—Only two women were elected members of the Central Executive Committee the real governing body of Soviet Russia, at the last All-Russian Soviet Congress recently held here.

The two women members are N. K. Oulianova, wife of Premier Lenine and president of the chief political and educational commission, who is active in organizing women's communist organizations; and Mme. Alexandra Kollandry, who formerly was minister of the commissar of social welfare.

The committee has 380 members. Among them are Bela Kun, who was leader of the communist movement in Hungary, G.
E. Zinoviev and Karl Radek, all three of whom are specially active in the affairs of the Third Internationale.

Ukraine Independence.

The great attention that Moscow is paying to the Ukraine, which is daily becoming more independent in its attitude and takes its orders less and less from Moscow, was indicated by the election to the central executive committee of three Ukrainians. They were Rakowsky, president of the Ukraine republic; Mannelsky, the Ukrainian commissar for agriculture, and Shrybnik, Ukrainian commissar of home affairs.

All the other well-known Bol-shevist leaders were returned to membership on the committee.
Among the number were Premier Lenine, Leon Trotsky, General Budenny, cavalry leader; George V. Chicherin, commissar of foreign affairs; L. B. Krassin, com-missar of foreign trade; J. V.
Stalin, commissar of National minorities and Leo Kamenoff, president of the Moscow Soviet.
