EFFORTS OF LABOR PARTY WERE OVERCOME PREMIER OLIVER AND CLEARIHUE BESIEGED THURSDAY BY MOB IN HOUSE

British Commons Rose, Obstructive Tactics of Laborites Failing

LONDON, Dec. 15.—The British parliament prorogued today until February 13. The program for adjournment went through without a hitch despite the widely heralded efforts of a small body of the left wing of Labor members to prevent rising of the House of Commons until a remedy had been found for the unemployment situation.

George Lansbury, leader of the Labor die-hards, attempted to block the proceedings but his move proved a failure. It resulted only in the opponents of

"GET A VOTE" CAMPAIGN WAS GREAT SUCCESS

Activities of Gyro Club Campaign
Was Instrumental in Big Poll
Recorded at Victoria

VICTORIA, Dec. 15.—Through the efforts of the Victoria Gyro Club, a record vote was taken in the municipal election here on Wednesday. Victoria electors to the number of over 7,000 cast their ballots as against 10,000 in Vancouver.

The "Get a Vote" campaign, originated by Gyro Newton Pullen and energetically followed up at registration time here, spread all over the continent with good results, especially in Victoria and Calgary.

LEWIS WINNER OVER ZYBSZKO

Heavyweight Wrestling Champion Retains Championship and Wins Rickard Belt Outright

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 15.—Strangler Lewis retained the world's heavyweight wrestling championship here last night by getting two out of three falls in a bout with Stanislaus Zybszko, the former champion. Zybszko dislocated his shoulder in the second fall but insisted on finishing the bout.

As a result of the foul, Lewis gets the Rickard belt for keeps having won it three times.

Zybszko got the first fall with a flying mare, Lewis got the second with a headlock and the third with toe holds.

BRITISH MEMBERS TO COME TO CANADA TO PLAN FOR SETTLERS

LONDON, Dec. 15.—Sir William Coutts, M.P., has given notice in the House of Commons that he will ask the Duke of Devonshire, Secretary for the Colonies, whether he will appoint a party of members of Parliament to visit the Colonies and Dominions.

The object of the visit, he says, would be to get first-hand information on arrangements to handle settlers under the Empire Settlement Act.

TRADE TREATY SIGNED

PARIS, Dec. 15.—The Franco-Canadian commercial treaty was signed here today.

ROYALTY ARE NOT WORTHY

Labor Leader Glasgow Council Opposes Reception to Duke of York—Satisfied, However

GLASGOW, Dec. 15.—Baillie Dollan, chairman of the Labor group in the Glasgow council, caused an uproar when he opposed the proposal to confer the freedom of the city on the Duke of York. He said that such a proceeding was merely politics and royal personages were not worth such honors. After the Lord Provost had promised economical entertainment of the Duke, Dollan withdrew his remarks and the corporation agreed by a vote of 50 to 28 to go through with the ceremony.

MONTGOMERY IS RUNNING

Announcement This Afternoon
That He Would Be a Candidate for Mayoralty

Ald. W. H. Montgomery announced this afternoon that he would be a candidate for the mayoralty at the next civic election. His platform will include a plank for the cutting down of expenses to the lowest possible minimum. He has served several years on the aldermanic board and this will not be his first entry into the mayoralty race although he has never been successful.

WOMEN MAY SERVE ON B.C. JURIES

VICTORIA, Dec. 15.—Women may in future serve on juries in British Columbia according to a decision made on Thursday by the legislature. The vote was 28 to 14.

Hon. J. W. Dell'Arras, member for Vancouver, said that women had asked for the responsibility and should be given it.

R. H. Pooley, member for Esquimalt, said he would not like to see his lady friends sitting on juries or other charges.

Mrs. M. E. Smith, Vancouver, pointed to Scandinavia as an example. She saw objections but wise restrictions would overcome them.

LEMIEUX GUEST BRITISH HOUSE

Says That Canada Has Work for All Willing Immigrants—More Liberty Than in U. S.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, speaker of the Canadian House of Commons, was entertained by both Houses of Parliament. Speaking, he told parliament that Canada had work for all immigrants who were willing to work more than eight hours a day. Canada did not fear that men would go to the United States for there was more liberty in Canada.

KERGIN TO RESIGN FROM SCHOOL BOARD

Dr. W. T. Kergin, chairman of the board of school trustees, announced last night that he would resign from the board before nomination day owing to the pressure of personal duties. Dr. Kergin had another year to serve after 1922, so his resignation means that an additional trustee will have to be elected at the January election, making a total of four. Mrs. E. V. Ling resigned and went south some time ago, and the terms of L. W. Postmore and Thomas McMeekin now expire. J. C. McLennan is the only member of this year's board who goes over to next year without election.

ORGANIZATION OF LOCAL ORCHESTRA

Further Action Laid Over Till New Year When First Rehearsal Will be Held

The first concert rehearsal of the Prince Rupert Symphony orchestra will take place in the Elks' Home on January 7 under the direction of Charles Balagou, leader of the Westholme Orchestra. It was decided at a meeting in the Elks' Home last night when plans were made for the organization of the orchestra.

There were fourteen talented players present at the meeting and the names of 43 musicians willing to join were submitted. It was pointed out that, due to the Christmas rush, sickness and the snow, it would be better to delay the final organization till after the New Year when a complete organization and a rehearsal will take place.

Through the kind offer of Ben, all the music for the concerts will be supplied by the orchestra free of charge. A number of pieces are now being ordered and the orchestra will get off to a good start early next month.

Legislature Was Invaded by Two Hundred Women and Few Men Chiropractic Advocates

VICTORIA, Dec. 15.—Two hundred women and a few men representing the chiropractors invaded the legislature yesterday afternoon and were met in the outer lobby by Premier Oliver who explained what was being done. He said that a representative committee of the legislature had investigated the question and he was bound to be guided by their report. He also said that a bill was being introduced dealing with the matter and would be discussed at some length and the Premier told them frankly that the only way to get a different view on the question was to change the legislators. Women of the delegation declared they and their children had been cured by chiropractors and therefore they felt strongly on the matter.

Later J. B. Clearihue, member for Victoria, met them and talked the matter over. He was put through a cross-fire of questions and suggestions until the bell for the legislature rung. The delegation went to the gallery but they were disappointed as the bill was put over until the evening.
