WOMAN'S DESIRE FOR BEAUTIFUL

Dress is Not Expression of Vanity but Craving for Artistic Expression

In an essay on modern fashions, Miss Charlotte Zimmerman, of Windsor, Ont., says "Dress is to woman what plumage is to a bird. Different clothes for different hours and beautiful clothes at all times are the birthright of every woman. Women's apparel is as much decorative as it is protective. The more beautiful the clothing the greater advance in civilization."

"Beautiful clothing, beautiful women, are as flowers to the world. The American woman's innate love for the beautiful goes back to the time of Mrs. Indian, whose first glimpse of finery, glittering beads and many-hued blankets brought in by the explorers created such a desire to possess them that the hatchet was buried and a new civilization begun."

Women Crave for Beauty

"All women crave for the beautiful, crave to express beauty; their love for pretty things is born with them and many and varied are the ways taken to express it."

"Women's clothes are not merely decorative, but the expression of individuality and all decoration is Art if properly executed. Art is civilization. Therefore, a woman properly attired advances Art and Civilization. It reaches as far as the cultivation of beautiful flowers."

"Clothes are one of the important personal expressions of our times, the most interesting

Had Constipation for 6 Months Was Relieved by Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills

A free motion of the bowels daily should be the rule of everyone, then there will be no constipation, sick or bilious spells, heartburn, foul breath, sour stomach, etc.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills will regulate the flow of bile to act properly on the bowels, thus making them active and regular, removing the constipation and all its allied troubles.

Mrs. R. C. Hunt, Port George, N. S., writes: "I have been troubled by being constipated for the last six months. My tongue has been terribly coated, so much so that it made my breath bad. I was talking to a friend about it, and she advised me to use Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, which I did, and now I am perfectly well. My tongue is as smooth as it was before I got that way, and I owe it all to your Pills, of which I only used two vials."

Price 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co. Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Dress is a matter of applied Art, and the variety of its expressions are as worth while as any of the arts, not excepting painting and architecture.

Vanity Not the Cause

"Women's desire for clothes does not hinge on vanity, but is created by a desire for personal expression to be artistic and attractive, to be beautiful."

"An essential of good taste means a knowledge of what is appropriate in any place or for any occasion. Sport clothes are not for church or ball gowns for street wear. A person of judgment and good taste recognizes these technicalities from afar. The apparent inconsistencies and indiscriminate exhibitions of bodies where illusion is the first essential, have been of transitory nature, and a keen awakening has come during the last year. The skirt at an indefinite distance from the ground has passed.

Originality will not be achieved by a competition to exceed Fashion's limits, but by a sane conception of the proper use, attention to form and line, harmony of color and texture and relation to individual expression. Color in dress has to be given great consideration. How many women know what is expressed by a color, yet it is a study that reverts to the ancients. Color is a personal matter and a splendid form of personal expression, and too often has no thought given to it. Who would paint a beautiful picture without great and careful study of the colors used to portray the mental concept of the finished picture? Today most women have a mental picture of how they would "like" to look, but fail in the details of carrying out their conception. Hence the aesthetic and harmonious expression is lost."

CURIOUS THEATRICAL RELICS TO BE SEEN

Clouds Attached to Chariots for Use of Gods of Olympus.

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 11.—Costumes and other relics of the two Swedish nightingales, Jenny Lind and Christina Nilsson, will be displayed along with a collection of other treasures of theatrical history in Sweden's first Dramatic Museum which will be opened during the latter part of August. The collection is being installed in the historic old Royal Theatre in the Castle of Drottningholm, which was patronized nearly 200 years ago by King Gustaf III, a famous protector of drama and the arts.

Among the interesting stage "props" that delighted the gallery gods of the 18th century, and have been stored away ever since in the mouldy vaults of the castle, are a dust-covered set of ocean waves and a couple of chariots, with clouds attached, for the exclusive use of the gods of Olympus. The picture collection, which includes stage settings, costume plates, portraits, etc., covers the theatrical history of various countries, and with respect to certain periods of French history is the most complete in the world. The theatre itself and the stage machinery will be restored to its original character.

Jenny Lind, it will be remembered is the singer who gave music in America its first great impetus when she appeared at Castle Garden, New York, in 1850 under the management of P. T.
