There will be a special meeting of the school board at the Booth Memorial School this afternoon to consider the advisability of reopening the domestic science and manual training quarters and two class rooms in that school immediately. Architect Jeffers states that these rooms may be reopened but there is a difference of opinion among the members of the board.

The case against George James charged with unlawfully purchasing two barrels of beer, was adjourned in the police court yesterday afternoon until next Thursday. The afternoon witnesses were J. Sigmund and H. Capstick for the defence and also William Millar, liquor vendor, and Arthur Covey, beer inspector. The case of unlawfully selling against the Prince Rupert Mercantile Co. was also adjourned until next Thursday.

The engagement is announced in North Vancouver by Mr. and Mrs. John Bull of their daughter, Miss Lillian Bull, to Gerald O'Sullivan, son of the late Col. Dennis O'Sullivan and Mrs. O'Sullivan, of London, England. The bride elect is quite well known in Prince Rupert, having on several occasions visited here with her sister, Mrs. J. P. Cade, who went south last week to attend the wedding which will take place on Saturday.

Len Bell, who arrived from the interior last night, will return to Hazelton tonight. Mr. Bell intends to be back here next week when his company's hydroplane "Hazelton" makes Fair week flights and will come back either by train at the end of the week or on the machine. Mr. Bell explains that he takes up as much room in the machine as two ordinary passengers so he does not go up as often as if he were but an ordinary specimen of manhood. Six foot men weighing over 200 pounds are not the most economical of hydroplane passengers.

Health and Comfort

EVERY winter, more and more people enjoy the health and comfort of Stanfield's Unshrinkable Underwear.

Stanfield's is health underwear because it is made in Canada for Canadian winters by Canadians, who know the climatic conditions of every section.

Stanfield's Unshrinkable Underwear retains the natural warmth of the body and prevents the skin from becoming chilled—two essentials for health in winter.

Stanfield's is comfortable because it fits—and it keeps right on fitting right because it is unshrinkable.

Stanfield's never breaks on the seams, because of the special over-cast stitching.

Made in combinations and two-piece suits, in full length, knee and elbow length, and sleeveless, for Men and Women.

Stanfield's Adjustable Combinations and sleepers for growing children (Patented).

Sample Book, showing weights and textures, mailed free.
