BANDITS BUSY RUSSIA TODAY

Outburst of Contempt for Law Follows Period Safely.

MOSCOW, April 18.—Soviet Russia has been swept by a wave of street banditism that rivals recent crime epidemics in the United States.

Until a few months ago, Moscow surprised foreign visitors by the safety of its streets, even late at night, but now is no safer than New York or Chicago and the list of crimes is growing steadily, while Petrograd, Odessa, Kiev and other cities are reported to be even worse.

Holdups, burglaries, murders, in the principal streets and battles with the Moscow police have occurred in such great numbers that the Moscow Soviet has decreed that immediate steps shall be taken to "liquidate" the situation.

"Liquidation" of such situations in Russia generally means shooting on sight of persons caught in the act of robberies, or speedy execution after conviction.

One issue of the newspaper Pravda reported some fifteen holdups, several burglaries and the discovery of two bodies, apparently of persons who had been robbed, killed and thrown into cellars. Some of these affairs have occurred in the principal streets.

Rob Even Clothes.

Russian highwaymen generally take not only the money, jewelry and watches of their victims but also their outer and sometimes inner clothing, leaving them to run home naked or nearly so. Clothing is worth more than money in Russia.

Some of the highwaymen, according to reports, adopt quite polite manners. At Petrograd one bandit is said to have stopped a number of men in the street, asking them, politely, after pointing at their overcoats if they wished to buy the garments.

"Why buy. It is mine already," the victim would say.

"No," the robber replied, "it is now mine."

Emphasizing his remarks with a revolver, the robber generally "sold" his victims' coat to them for 7,000,000 rubles.

At Kiev one robber accosted his victim asking: "Have you seen a policeman around here?" Receiving assurances in the negative, he said: "Well, then, give me your overcoat."

Heart Would Beat like a TRIP HAMMER

Heart trouble has of late years become very prevalent. Sometimes a pain catches you in the region of the heart, now and then your heart skips beats, palpitates, throbs, and beats with such rapidity and violence you think it is going to burst.

You have weak and dizzy spells, sinking sensations, are nervous, irritable and depressed, and if you attempt to walk upstairs or any distance you get all out of breath.

We know of no remedy that will do so much to make the heart regain strength and vigor, regulate its beat and restore it to a healthy normal condition as will

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

Mrs. Chadwick, Delhi, Ont., writes: "I had palpitation of the heart, and the least exercise, such as going upstairs or up a hill, my heart would beat like a trip hammer and at times I was dizzy-headed and had a sinking sensation as if my time were near."

A friend suggested I try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, so I procured three boxes, and by the time the first one was used I began to improve." In all I took six boxes, and now although in my 65th year I feel like a young girl, no dizziness or heart-thumping, and can walk miles without fatigue. At time of my sickness I weighed 120 pounds, now I weigh 150."

Price, 50¢ a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

FINE CHURCH SERVICE AT OCEAN FALLS WAS GIVEN EASTER SUNDAY

OCEAN FALLS, April 20.—The Easter Sunday services at St. Paul's Anglican Church, Ocean Falls, were well attended, a large number of communicants taking the sacrament at the morning services.

Evansong saw the snug little church crowded to the doors and even with the addition of several improvised seats, accommodation could not be found for all.

Rev. W. A. Grey officiated at all three services his sermon in the evening, with "The Resurrection" as his theme, being listened to with deep interest by all the worshippers. The anthem "Christ Is Risen" was finely sung by the large choir, the members of which wore full vestment for the first time. Mrs. Godding is to be heartily congratulated upon her success at the organ, having been called upon at short notice owing to Mr. Milligan, the regular organist, leaving for Vancouver on Good Friday.
