

For your Silk Sweater

Your silk sweater can be made dainty and clean, and as smart as new if you wash it in the gentle Lux suds.

Make a rich suds by whisking a teaspoonful of Lux into half a bowlful of very hot water. Add cold water until lukewarm. Dip the sweater up and down, pressing suds repeatedly through soiled spots. Rinse in three lukewarm waters. Squeeze water out—do not twist or wring. Roll in a towel, and when nearly dry, press with a warm iron—gently pulling the garment into shape as you do.

The thin, white, satin-like flakes of Lux are made by our own exclusive process, and quickly dissolve into a rich bubbling lather.

Lux is sold only in sealed packages—don't open!

BEAR STORIES FROM INTERIOR

Contest Between Mule and Bruin Ends in Discomfiture of Latter.

CHASES RAILWAY SPEEDER
Forestry Patrolman Resigns Position in Favor of Determined Visitor.

PRINCE GEORGE, July 13.—(By Canadian Press)—Two amusing bear stories, both vouched for by reputable eye-witnesses, are going the rounds here. Forest fires in northern British Columbia during the past month have had a peculiar effect upon some of the wild animals of the woods, judging from some of the stories brought in.

A fight between a fire-crazed bear and a mule, in which the bear was worsted occurred at L. Mason's ranch, at Bednesti, B. C.

The forest fire routed the bear from its lair, and in its dash from the flames into the open country it collided violently with a jack-mule, which was grazing contentedly. The bear was promptly stretched out on the ground by a double tattoo from the capable hind hoofs, and the mule calmly resumed its interrupted grazing.

On Mules Ribs.
Thoroughly angered, the bear picked itself up and cautiously approached the mule from a different angle. The huge paw was brought down with a resounding thwack on the mule's ribs. This was unfortunate. The hoofs were again brought into play, after a quick, accurate manoeuvre for position, and the fight was called off so far as the bear was concerned.

Mr. Mason, who had witnessed the unusual encounter, dashed to the house for a rifle to finish the bear, should any life be left. Before he could get back to the scene, however, Bruin managed to get groggily to his feet and return to the less exciting environment of the forest fire.

Bears Take Ride.
A fire patrol ranger is sponsor for another bear story. While making a survey along the Grand Trunk Pacific railway in the mountain district, he came upon a young cub suffering from severe burns on feet and body.

The youngster was whimpering from the pain and the forester took pity on it and lashed it to his speeder.

The patrolman started on his journey only to discover that the mother bear had appeared and was in hot pursuit. As the track ran uphill at this point, the bear, making long strides, gained steadily and the need for strategy was clearly indicated. The forestry book of instructions does not cover a situation such as this, but the ranger was resourceful and decided that the best plan would be to throw the cub off the car. His attempts to untie the knots on the lashings which secured the youngster to the machine, however, proved futile.

Pursuer and pursued came to a yet steeper grade, with the advantage all with the former. Finally, with one mighty effort the old bear threw herself on the back of the speeder, holding on by her claws and paws.

Resigns in Favor.
This is where the forester decided to resign in favor of the enemy. He dove off the car, and regained his feet in time to see it continuing its journey eastward, with a mother and child happily reunited as its passengers.

Later the speeder was found, run down and everything intact except the side of the seat where the cub had been tied, the old bear having torn it out to release her offspring.

KEEPING THE PEACE.
"Don't you thing the men around here put in too much time playing poker?" said the new arrivals at Crimston Gulch. "No," replied Caetus Joe. "The sheriff says poker must be encouraged. As long as everybody's gathered around with a pack of cards he can keep his eye on the entire citizenship, and act prompt in case of disorder."—Washington Star.

SONS OF CANADA WIN LACROSSE

Administered Second Defeat to Elks Last Night by Score of 8 to 5

The Sons of Canada again defeated the Elks in the second exhibition lacrosse game of the season which was played last night at the Aeropolis Hill grounds, the final score being 8 to 5. Four periods were played. The results at the end of each were: First, 2 to 0 in favor of the Sons of Canada; second, 3 to 3 for Elks; third, 5 all; fourth, 8 to 5 in favor of Sons. S. W. Taylor and A. A. Eason were the leading Elks' scorers and H. Menzies and U. E. LaCasse for the Sons. In the third period McLachlan, of the Elks, received a smush over the shins which compelled him to retire. Three penalties were given against Charlie Blythe and one each against Taylor and Oliver. These players were put off the field for three minutes on each occasion.

Fred Stork, M.P., faced off the ball, George Tito was referee, Fred Githuly and H. B. Scott, goal umpires, and George Munro, timekeeper. The teams lined up as follows:

Sons of Canada—Sunberg, Alex Saint, D. Brown, B. Crossell, U. E. LaCasse, H. Menzies, C. Blythe, Gray, D. Graham.

Elks—Lipsitt, J. D. McAuley, Mansell, Wigglesworth, A. A. Eason, J. Mitchell, B. Oliver, S. W. Taylor and M. M. McLachlan.

Sport Chat

That the two Senior football league fixtures next week will be interesting games is assured. On Monday if the Sons of Canada lose, their chances for the championship are gone. The Callies, whom they are to meet, have nothing much to gain except their first credit in the standing list for their position in the regular will remain unchanged. By winning the Sons of Canada will not be even sure of the championship for if the Sons of England beat the Grotto on Thursday evening they will be still tied at the top with the Sons of Canada and a play-off will be necessary. If the Grotto win that game, following a possible defeat of the Canadians on Monday, they will be champions by one point.

Following is the list of chances of the teams for championship:

Sons of Canada—win over Callies on Monday and defeat of Sons of England by Grotto on Thursday.
Sons of England—defeat of Sons of Canada by Callies and win over Grotto on Thursday.
Grotto—defeat of Sons of Canada and win over Sons of England.
Callies—nil.
Sons of Canada—Sons of England draw—wins or draws by each in next week's games.

Elks vs. Sons of Canada meet tonight in the Senior Baseball League schedule. A win for the former would put them at the top of the standing with an average of .600 while their opponents would go to second place at .500. Victory for the Sons will place the Elks in company with the Knights of Columbus in the cellar at .400. A good close game is likely to take place for all teams appear pretty evenly matched. Fans are hoping that there will be a decrease in the error list.

Two thousand people saw the Ketchikan baseball team trim Anyox by a score of 4 to 1, says the Ketchikan Chronicle in one of the best exhibitions seen in Ketchikan in many years. It looked like a shutout until the last few minutes of play when Anyox put one man over the plate, due to errors.

Hallson, pitching for Ketchikan, made a splendid showing holding the visitors to scattered and ineffective hits throughout. He was at his best and was given big league support. Lonnie McIntosh was the chief swatman for Ketchikan in the afternoon, landing on three for safe hits.

In the second game, played at 6 o'clock, Don Brown went in to pitch for Ketchikan and held his own until the third inning when the visitors got him for a cluster of swats that put four men across the plate. In the follow-
