STRANGE MONSTER CAST UP BY SEA

Has Body of Whale but Head and Extremities of Turtle

LIMA, Peru, Jan. 2.—The tidal wave which recently devastated parts of the coast of Chile cast upon the beach at the same time a strange denizen of the deep, whose like has not been seen in these waters in many years. It would appear to be a cross between a whale and a turtle.

Fishermen at Lurin, twenty-five miles from Lima, reported a huge cetacean floundering in the shallow waters of the bay. Then they sent out word it was an unknown monster of the sea, and that they had killed it.

The director of the Natural History Museum of the University of San Marcos and the official taxidermist made a trip to Lurin for the purpose of studying and classifying the strange visitor. They found an animal with the body of a whale, but with the head and extremities resembling those of a turtle. After examination they came to the conclusion that it belonged to the family of "Balaenidae" cetaceans, inhabiting the South Pacific waters. It is supposed that it was carried along by the Humboldt current and thrown up on the beach by the tremendous surfs following the tidal waves of the Chilean earthquake.

The specimen will be brought back to Lima for mounting and will be preserved in the University museum.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—William H. Keeler, one of the most famous baseball players of all time, died of heart disease. He was 50 years of age.

TELKWA

Miss Gladys McDonald, who has been teaching at the Driftwood creek school for the past two years, has gone to Vancouver to attend the Provincial normal school.

The skating rink is becoming more popular every day and many new enthusiasts are enjoying the exercise.

The bridge over the Telkwa river below the coal mine, which was washed out last spring, is about to be rebuilt. It will be of great assistance in getting coal from the Betty mine. This is very fine coal and is in great demand.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Chapman, of Smithers, spent Christmas with Mrs. Chapman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McDonald, of Telkwa.

SMITHERS

Mrs. Smoke of Prince Rupert, is spending the holiday season here with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Chapman.

Frank Gagne has accepted a position at the Mamie mine, and will be in charge of the compressor machinery.

A daughter was born on Friday last at the Smithers Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Malkins, of Fort Fraser.

Rev. E. B. Cousins, of Topley, has been spending a few days as the guest of Rev. M. W. Lees.

Fred Watson has purchased the house on Alfred Street formerly owned and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Doodie and has taken up residence there.

Geo. Wall has moved his family into town and is now residing in the apartments vacated by Fred Watson, under the store on Main Street.

THREE'S A CROWD

A lover and his lass sought a secluded lane, but, to their disgust, a small boy arrived there too.

Said the lover: "Here's a penny; go and get some sweets." "I don't want any sweets."

"Well, here's a shilling. Run away."

"I don't want a shilling."

"Then here's half-a-crown."

"I don't want half-a-crown."

"Well, what do you want?"

"I want to watch."

A POKER POSER

Old Man Edison has hurled another curdled questionaire in the artificial teeth of a gaping world. Tommy is pussy-footing around for a left-handed right-hand Jack-of-all-trades, and among three score and ten other things he pokes this poker poser at candidates.

"You have only $10 in the world and are playing poker with a man you never saw before. On the first deal he holds a pat hand. You have three eights before the draw. There is fifty cents in the pot. He bets a quarter. What are you going to do and why?"

If you wanted this Edison job, I don't think I'd get it after answering in this fashion:

(1)—I don't play poker. At least, not when there is only $10 between me and work.

(2)—I don't play poker with strangers. They might refuse to accept my I.O.U.'s.

(3)—I don't play poker in a two-handed game. That, Mr. Edison, is the lowest form of the great indoor sport. A man might as well go fishing.

(4)—I wouldn't play poker on a two-bit ante, with only $10 capital. There wouldn't be enough action for the money.

(5)—With three eights, I'd stick around. With a gang I knew, I'd hike some, even with only ten bucks' worth of chips. But with this utter stranger, I wouldn't hurry myself. He
