intendent of the Victoria-Phoenix Brewing Co., Victoria, arrived in the city on the Prince George yesterday afternoon.

A. A. Clark, junior, forester in the local office of the Forest Branch, returned last night from Burns Lake. He has been a month in the interior visiting various points on departmental business.

J. H. Sheddin has been given the contract by the school board for the carrying of Westview children to and from the Borden Street school following the closing of the school in the West End. He is doing the work for $1.50 a day.

Charles O'Donnell, charged with intoxication, was fined $50 with the option of thirty days imprisonment by Magistrate Mc-Glymont in the police court this morning. O'Donnell fell through a plate glass window at the Royal Hotel last night.

A letter from Miss Mae Martin who recently resigned from the local teaching staff on account of her mother's illness, thanking the school board for its expression of sympathy and its cooperation during her term of night's meeting of the board.

A letter from the city council asking for details of fire insurance carried on the city schools was received by the board last night and the secretary was instructed to comply with the request. In answer to a question,

Mr. Vance said the insurance was divided as evenly as possible among the local agents.

M. Sheady, who was one of the heavy contractors during the G.T.P. construction days here, is revisiting the city for a few days, having arrived yesterday on the Prince George from the south. Mr. Sheady is now located at Edmonton where he is heavily interested in the stock raising and farm land business.

The monthly report of the Prince Rupert branch of the Northern Polytechnic Institute as submitted to the school board last night by J. Pinder-Moss, director, showed a total enrolment of 105 for the month.

There were 16 classes and 42 instructors and 22 subjects were being taken up. The motor mechanics class had been discontinued.

Permission was granted last night by the school board to Miss Mills and James Mitchell to absent themselves for one day from their duties next week in order to join the basketball excursion to Anyox. The board expressed itself as favoring anything which would tend to the encouraging of sport among the children. These teachers were doing valuable work in that connection.
