they may set forth their needs or voice their opinions on matters pertaining to their interests, but must depend on the generous spirit of the public press for the privilege of stating their case to the public in any issue or controversy concerning themselves that may arise. For this reason I ask leave to encroach upon your valuable space with matter that may be considered as controversial.

Labor aldermen, through the medium of the Trades and Labor Council organ, express dissatisfaction at the manner in which complaints of the unemployed are pre ented to the city council and governmental authorities. At least, it l is encouraging to note that the Trades and Labor Council, with ital component Labor aldermen, i awake to the fact that the unemployed may have demands to pre cent to authorities that deserve consideration. The local unero loyed association has a membership of nearly five hundred. Its rerular weekly meetings have an av erage attendance of three hun dred. At any regular meeting a mafority vote can remove any or all of the executive. If any delegate of the organization is considered objectionable by the city council, notice Arranged Tonight to that effect with reasons set forth would be duly considered at the regular meeting. As for the "float. ers" who, in the eyes of the Trades and Labor Council, are taking an active part in the affairs of the unemployed, it is pertinent to point out that the needs of the floaters tical and inseparable.

The unemployed of this district as elsewhere, are facing a bitte struggle. In this struggle the co operation and moral support of the fortunate workers who are employed is sought for and appreciated But that the unemployed collectively should commit their needs to : labor union hierarchy for expresion is a different matter. For who is better qualified to present the needs of the unemployed before authoritative bodies than members! of the unemployed?

That political aspirants should attempt to find profit in the misery of the unemployed is conceivted that the undefeated University able, though regrettable. Equally is neonle of Canada today transcende all political parties as at present anstituted.
