Magistrate McClymont gave an excellent address stressing the value of the church to the community. Real estate men always advertised the number of churches in a place, for the man who knocked the church wouldn't buy real estate in a churchless city. The speaker also stressed the value of the church as builder of character. The third point Mr. McClymont stressed was the value of the church as a creator of proper environment. He contrasted the environment of the bar room and that of the church, "Some will not agree | through the Post Office. with me," he said, "but youth Ask your local postmaster will dance somewhere and I be- I for one, and see the local lieve that the church should pro- representative in each town, vide dancing under proper con- or write the registrar, P.O. ditions. 'BOOTS SHOES"

THAT FIT MULTIPLY THEIR WEAR.

It sounds reasonable doesn't it? Fit your foot-don't just cover or clothe it. Why do you buy a suit a cap or anything else to fit? It looks better doesn't it? better-keeps its shape and wears longer. This applies more to footwear than anything else you wear. Take your weight-say 145 pounds-you take 1000 steps a day. You pound 145,000 pounds into a pair of shoes per day. Then why not buy dependable shoes, such as SLATER, MURRAY LONDON LADY, VENUS, STERLING, TRED-RITE and HEWETSON and get them fitted at
