BIG WEEK END RAID ON IRISH PLOTTERS

WHILE SENATE OF U. S. FAILED TO PASS TREATY IT WILL BE ENFORCED

Silent Raid on Irish Suspects in Britain Results in Hundreds Being Deported to Native Land

LONDON, March 12.—A swift and silent raid upon Irish suspects in Great Britain created something of a sensation here. Developments are awaited with much curiosity. Judging from the customary reticence of the Free State government, however, it seems unlikely much information will be given out. A statement on the subject in the House of Commons may fill gaps in the story.

DUBLIN, March 12.—Nearly 300 prisoners taken in the week end raids in England and Scotland, it is understood, have been landed here from British warships, two hundred men from the balance, including about thirty women, from another ship. All were conveyed under heavy armed guard to jail.

SALMON EGGS FOR SKEENA

Famous Atlantic Fish Being Planted in Local Waters

An attempt is being made to introduce the famous Atlantic salmon into the waters of the Skeena, and a consignment of eggs is now on the way to Terrace where the young fish will be raised at the Lakelse hatchery. This fish is of special interest to sportsmen because it is a game fish that will rise to the fly or take a bait. Unlike the Pacific salmon it does not die directly it has spawned but returns to salt water. A Winnipeg despatch received this morning says: "Millions of salmon eggs from Newcastle, New Brunswick, passed through en route to Terrace for the Dominion fish hatchery. This is the first experimental attempt to introduce superior quality Miramichi salmon into British Columbia."

Mrs. F. M. Whitlow, who has been visiting in the city for the past week, returned to Usk on Saturday night's train.

Railway Company Owes City $339,000 Default on Taxation Contracts

A brief has been prepared by Ald. Gollart showing that $339,000 has been saved the G.T.P. Railway Co. in the past eleven years through taxation agreements with the city. It is pointed out that the company made certain pledges to the city in connection with its development program in return for concessions and failed altogether to carry them out while the city fulfilled its end of the contract.

The document will be given to Hon. T. D. Pattullo and E. C. Gibbons, local delegates to Ottawa who will leave on Wednesday night for the East, to be used as an argument in their case for railway and port development at Prince Rupert.

Halibut Treaty Fails to Become Law but There Will be no Fish Taken by Boats after November 15

SEATTLE, March 12.—A Washington special to the Times says that although Congress adjourned without passing the Act enforcing the provisions of the treaty prohibiting halibut fishing in the North Pacific waters during the winter months, it is certain that no fishing will be permitted during the closed season for the next five years. The treaty went to Canada for ratification by parliament, and the state department requested that action be expedited. One of the first acts of the new Congress will be the passage of a law providing a penalty for the violation of the treaty.

As Congress does not meet until after the closed season becomes effective, the state department will request the treasury department to use the coast guard cutter service in enforcing the law, and officials of coast ports will be instructed to seize any shipments of halibut landed after November 15.

The officers of the Fishing Vessels Owners Association are in perfect accord with the treaty between the United States and Canada, closing halibut fishing from November 15 to February 15, it was stated at the headquarters of that organization. They point out that halibut are growing scarcer each year and that catches are therefore decreasing. One officer said the halibut begins to spawn about November 1, and that under present conditions thousands of spawning fish are taken every year.

Against J. Donohue of

He was last heard of in Oklahoma and the United States police are asked to assist in locating him.

Donohue had been with the company fifteen years and during the last three, up to the time he resigned a year ago, he was general manager.

MRS. WRINCH DIED SUNDAY

Wife of Well Known Interior
Medical Missionary Passed
Away at Hazelton

Mrs. Alice Wrinch, wife of Dr. H. C. Wrinch, superintendent of the Hazelton Hospital, passed away at her home in Hazelton yesterday morning following a long illness.

Before her marriage Mrs. Wrinch was Miss Alice Brecken, a head nurse in the Grace Hospital at Toronto. Born near Toronto she came to Hazelton as a bride some 23 years ago and in her many years of residence there has always been a wonderful assistance to her husband in his duties as medical missionary. Up to a short time before her death, hardly a day passed but she visited the hospital lending a word of comfort and sympathy to the sufferers there. Her death will be a matter of deep regret to all the Hazelton people and her many admiring friends and acquaintances throughout the central interior. Not long ago Mrs. Wrinch was taken to Rochester, Minnesota, by her husband for treatment at the Mayo clinic but this proved unsuccessful in curing her illness.

Besides the widower, Mrs. Wrinch is survived by five children, Leonard, who is attending the University of Alberta at Edmonton; Cooper, of the Union Bank staff at Hazelton; Miss Ralphena, who was called home recently on account of her mother's illness from attending school at Edmonton; Arthur, who is attending High School at Vancouver, and Harold, at home.

The funeral will take place at Hazelton on Thursday, Frank Mosiris, manager of the B.C. Undertakers here, leaving on tonight's train to take charge.

Patriotism in the Home is Urged by Dr. Grant when Addressing Municipal Chapter of I.O.D.E.

Attributing the cause of the crime wave that has swept the world since the Great War to the fact that the home was losing its grip on those within it because the children were supplanting the parents in its control and the discipline necessary to good citizenship was thus being lost, Rev. Dr. H. R. Grant made a stirring appeal for women to use their influence in improving the citizenship of Canada in an address at the annual meeting of the Municipal Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, held on Saturday afternoon in the Presbyterian Church Hall.

"I have been impressed with the amount of work done by your order during the year and the splendid success you have had," said Dr. Grant. "It is a splendid thing to have success and in my experience I have seen that it takes women to put work over well. The organization of women into such a wonderful movement as the Daughters of the Empire is a splendid idea."

"Characters of men and women are formed in their childhood and the impressions received then last for years. When the women are imbued with loyalty and patriotism there will go forth from the homes boys and girls, the men and women of tomorrow, carrying with them the ideals impressed upon them by their mothers, which will be carried on from generation to generation."

Justice, Fair Play, Truth

"The spirit of justice, fair play, truth and righteousness lies behind the British Empire," and these are primitive morals on which are founded the manhood and nationhood of Great Britain. Even now that spirit of British honesty and truth is being exemplified in her determination to pay off, despite the almost overwhelming difficulties, her tremendous war debts without pushing her own debtors. People who undertake such a task as that must be a wonderful people. The tremendous innate honesty of the British people is brought out in its tremendous national honesty."

The valor of British men does not need to be referred to here. You all know that too well and perhaps more intimately and with more heart pangs than I. Enough be it to say that it all goes to reflect to the honor of the British race.

British Spirit

"While we are loyal to the British flag let us be loyal in our hearts to the British spirit of honesty—the underlying moral factor that makes the nation great. Let us take it into ourselves, into our business and into our homes in order to preserve that high plane of citizenship worthy of our ancestry."

"Who can better teach these principles than the women of our homes? You women occupy a strategic position in the training of the future citizens of Canada for the best training can be given in the home."

"I can remember when the home was the citadel of the nation, when the mothers and fathers were interested in the homes. Out of such homes came the sterling men and women who have made the name of Canada great."

Deterioration

"Today, I think, the home has lost its grip upon those in the home. Instead of the parents running the home the children are running it. That is not as it should be and, as a consequence, the home is deteriorating. Let me tell you the nation is the sum of its individuals and the home is the unit that is putting the citizens into the nation. Thus it is the tremendous problem of the home to see that future generations are fit to be citizens of Canada."

"There has been a crime wave since the war. Some say that it has been caused by the upsetting of conditions by the war. Police authorities say that it is due to the fact that the boys and girls have not been under the discipline of the home as in previous generations. Boys are not being taught the duties of the home and are not under the discipline of the home which fits them for the discipline of work. Records show that one out of every 12,000 persons in the United States is murdered. Why? Because the home fails to discipline its members."

Tremendous Influence

"The women are the queens of the home and a child remembers the mother more than any other member of the home. The mother has a tremendous influence in the heart of the boy. Can you women not use that influence in improving the citizenship of Canada? Cannot you do a wonderful work in putting into the Empire and the Dominion boys and girls of whom the nation and the empire will be proud?"
