Prince Rupert Totem Pole is Most Ancient and Best Carved Relic Obtainable on Islands

The totem pole which the Prince Bupert Board of Trade obtained for the city and which will arrive here from the Queen Charlotte Islands by the steamer Prince Albert early next week is said by Thomas Deasy, Massett Indian Agent, to be the oldest and best carved native relic of its kind that could have been obtained on the Islands. It is undoubtedly one of the most ancient of the numerous totems of the Haidas. During over one hundred years it has stood guard over the lodges of the chiefs of the Edenshaw tribe by one of whom it was erected on the shore of Hecate Strait facing

While definite confirmation is still lacking, it is understood that an Ocean Falls trap shooting team will be here next week to engage with the local Gun Club in an inter-town meeting. Two trophies are being offered by the Fair Board for the meet one for the winning team and the other for the highest individual scorer. The event will take place, it is understood, on the Park Avenue grounds.
