Respects Paid to Memory of Respected Lady From all Parts of Central Interior

The population of Hazelton district turned out en masse to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. H. C. Wrinch which took place at Hazelton on Thursday afternoon. There were also representatives from Kispiox, Terrace, Smithers, and Telkwa and six tribes of Indians from different parts of the district were present, including the bands of the Church Army and Salvation Army. Six clergymen participated in the obsequies. Rev. J. R. Hewitt, Hazelton pastor, preached the sermon and paid a fine tribute to the life and service of Mrs. Wrinch. Rev. W. Mawhinney, of Telkwa, and Rev. T. E. Ferrier, of Brandon, Man., head of the Indian Mission department of the Methodist Church, also spoke feelingly in memory of deceased. Other clergymen taking part were: Rev. J. R. Young, of Terrace; Rev. Proctor of St. Peter's Anglican Church, Hazelton, and Rev. M. W. Lees, of Smithers. At the graveside Robert Tomlinson spoke to the Indians in their native tongue. The Church Army choir and the Salvation Army choir sang, and the Church Army band rendered a selection.

The pallbearers were H. H. Little, E. R. Cox, C. H. Sawle, W. S. Harris, R. S. Sargent and S. H. Roskins. Funeral arrangements were in the hands of the B.C. Undertakers, of Prince Rupert.

SUFFERED SO

from Heart and Nerves

LIFE WAS A BURDEN

Mr. A. H. Lee, Beamsville, Ont., writes:—"I am delighted to let you know what I have to say regarding the good Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills did me.

A short time ago I suffered with heart and nerve trouble, and was so bad I could not sleep, only about two hours each night. My heart was so bad I had spells when driving on the road and would faint away, and neighbors would carry me in from my wagon. I also took these spells in the night and during my daily work on the farm. My nerves were so bad I would jump out of bed, and was then compelled to walk the floor before I could settle down again, but after taking a few boxes of

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills

I can honestly say I am a relieved man. I now feel in the best of health, in fact, the best I've been in for three years, and can do any class of work with pleasure where before life was a burden to me."

VANCOUVER MAN IS TREASURER

D. J. Matheson Chosen from Nearly Hundred Applicants Last Night

D. J. Matheson, accountant, auditor, notary public and authorized trustee, 714 Standard Bank Building, Vancouver, was selected to be the new city treasurer and collector by the council in special session last night.

The reading of some 90 applications took the city fathers until after 11 o'clock and about midnight the selection was reached on a five to two vote, O. W. Ross, of Vancouver, being the second applicant to receive support. Most of the applications were from the prairies, Winnipeg being prominently represented in the list. There were also several from Vancouver and two from the city.

Mr. Matheson has been communicated with by wire and his reply will probably indicate the date of his arrival to take over his duties. W. D.
