In the Letter Box

DUAL LANGUAGE

Terrace, B.C.

Editor Daily News.

Dear Sir.—In this letter I am dealing with the laungauge problem. Many of us true Canadians know that there are two official languages established in this country for all time. We also should know to appreciate and thank God for it, but instead of amity like it should be, there exists a feeling of disdain with many and a race for supremacy. I believe it is about time for the authorities to take a firm attitude and put the matter of languages on a concrete foundation.

As the English and French languages are naturally related, it seems to me an easy matter to settle. My plan would be for each province to establish a belingual college independent of any other institutions for the purpose of training the future politicians.

I believe no man should be allowed to enter federal politics in the country unless he can express himself in the two languages. With an institution of that kind politics could be remade honorable. The one who by nature has the faculty of learning languages should be given the preference. There are many studious men and women who have a fairly good start already and who would be glad to patronize such an institution.

In conclusion let us consider the demagogue's point of view. Is the French language necessary in this country? It has been proved by the great men of the past that the French affiliated with the English or other tongue makes the strongest combination for deep thinking and for scientific research. Now then, as Canadians let us ask ourselves this question. Do I understand the psychology of the people of this country with one language only? Many would say yes, I go by certain books and prejudiced stories. The more fishy it looks, the best it is for the jays. If a plan like I have proposed would mature, every demagogue then would be on the sick list. It would make room for the gentlemen who are able to put Canada on its feet.

"Is a sandwich and a cup of tea a bona-fide meal?" This was the question that occupied much of the time of the county court before Judge Young yesterday afternoon in connection with the hearing of the appeal of Corley & Burgess against a conviction by Magistrate Carss that they had sold liquor in prohibited hours. L. W. Patmore had the case for the appellants and W. E. Fisher appeared for the crown. Judgment was reserved.

Northern British Columbia's first exhibition was officially opened this morning by Hon. Price Ellison, minister of agriculture. J. H. McMullin, president of the Fair Board, presided over the opening ceremonies and, besides Mr. Ellison, addresses were also made by William Manson, M.P.P. and Mayor T. D. Pattullo.

Billy Williams arrived from Vancouver on the Prince George this morning. He will meet Lem Kegg in a boxing match at the McIntyre Hall tomorrow evening.

George Frizzell is launching a new speed boat this afternoon. It is 30 feet long, five feet wide and will have a 24-horse power engine. The new craft will participate in the speed boat races in connection with the Exhibition program this week.

Hans E. Von Shuecking, representing Alvo Von Alvensleben Ltd. of Vancouver, is visiting Atlin district inspecting mining properties. He is impressed with the potential wealth of the Portland Canal and Naas River districts.

Hon. W. R. Ross, minister of lands, announces that a new land policy is to be inaugurafed which will greatly benefit the central interior. Natural stock ranges will be leased at low figures to settlers instead of being left to waste.

OBJECTION TAKEN TO KILLING OF LIONS

The Winnipeg Free Press says: The recent revolting slaughter of more than 2,000 sea lions in British Columbia waters is to be thoroughly investigated. It looks as though someone blundered in ordering the steamship Givenchy, of the Dominion fisheries board, to commit the ruthless destruction. The whole matter is to be investigated at the next meeting of the Biological board of Canada. This was intimated to the British Columbia Natural History society by the Dominion commissioner of fisheries, Professor E. E. Prince. He is reported as having stated that "well informed scientific opinion shows that the cruel action taken has no justification except ignorance and savage love for destroying Canadian wild life."

SMITHERS DEFEATED PRINCE RUPERT FOR SECOND TIME FRIDAY

Defeating Prince Rupert by a score of 10 to 6, the Smithers baseball team scored their second victory over the locals in the baseball series at the Bulkley Valley Fair last Friday afternoon. An unfortunate fourth inning blow up on the part of Prince Rupert team, which netted the Smithers aggregation a total of six runs, was the decisive factor in what was otherwise a close and well contested match.

Harry Astoria pitched for Prince Rupert and Douglas Frizzell caught. McConnachie pitched the first seven innings for Smithers and was then relieved by George Roberts. H. Owens caught.

The Prince Rupert team returned home on Saturday Evening accompanied by Ben Self.

Sport Chat

News of former Prince Rupert baseball, football, lacrosse and hockey stars comes in a letter received by Roi Barnes from Hughie Scott who is now in charge of the sporting goods department of the Bushman Hardware Co. in Seattle with ten men under him. Charlie Blyth is going to manage a hockey team in Seattle this winter. There are almost enough players from Prince Rupert there now to form a Sons of Canada team. Among them are, besides Mr. Blyth, Tom Moloney, Hughie Scott and Billy Blyth. Wallace Anderson and C. C. Clementson have been going strong in baseball at the Puget Sound metropolis this season. The former has been a member of two amateur baseball teams and one soccer aggregation.

Now that the summer sport season is over, love feasts are in order and several are being planned. This evening A. W. Edge will tender a banquet in honor of the Sons of England football team. Invitations have been already issued. Then for October 4, the Football Association is arranging a smoker at which all the soccer trophies for the year will be presented to their respective winners. Such functions, bringing together the rivals of the year on the sports field, prove very pleasant and valuable factors towards the promotion of the true sporting spirit in the community.
