BOXING OUTLOOK FOR YEAR 1923

Five Champions It Is Expected Will Be Dethroned—Will Be Interesting Season

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Five of the eight universally recognized boxing champions are likely to be dethroned this year in the opinion of ring critics, while title-holders in the other three divisions probably also will face strenuous opposition in an effort to retain their laurels. The general outlook is for one of the most interesting fistie programs in many years.

Pugilistic kings considered to be in imminent danger of losing their world crowns are: Jimmy Wilde, of England, flyweight; Joe Lynch, of New York, bantamweight; Johnny Kilbane, of Cleveland, featherweight; Johnny Wilson, of Boston, middleweight; and Battling Siki, of France and Senegal, light heavyweight.

The other titleholders—Benny Leonard, of New York, lightweight; Mickey Walker, of Elizabeth, N.J., welterweight; and Jack Dempsey, heavyweight—are favored to stay at the top, but while the opposition in their respective ranks is not considered more than threatening, there is always the chance that any of them will receive a fatal tap on the chin.

Interest in Dempsey

Chief interest promises to center upon Dempsey, who plans an active outdoor campaign after a lapse of nearly two years since his memorable fight with Georges Carpentier. Several of his challengers may make it more than interesting for the champion, but the present prospect is that he will successfully retain his laurels. He is to fight Beckett in New York in the summer but no change is expected.

Wilde, who has been inactive for some time, has been challenged for a title match by Pancho Villa, the scrappy Filipino who took the American flyweight title away from Johnny Buff last year. Villa not only has taken the measure of the best American flyweights, but he has frequently gone out of his class with decisive success.

The Filipino is ambitious to duplicate Buff's feat in holding both the flyweight and bantamweight belts and has a following which would be ready to back him strongly in a title bout with Joe Lynch. The latter faces two other formidable challengers in Carl Tremaine, hard-hitting Cleveland, and Irish Johnny Curtin, of Jersey City, N.J.

Kilbane to Fight

Kilbane has agreed to stake his featherweight title against the Frenchman, Eugene Ciri, holder of the European championship, in a match at the Polo Grounds on Decoration Day. Ciri, young and aggressive, will have much in his favor against Kilbane, who has slowed up as a result of a long period of inactivity.

Wilson, another inactive champion, will have difficulty retaining his title if he accepts the challenges of several formidable 160-pound boxers, including Tommy Loughran, of Philadelphia, Harry Greb, of Philadelphia, who also holds the American light heavyweight title, and Bryan Downey, of Cleveland. Wilson is not recognized as champion in a number of states because of his tactics in avoiding championship matches.

Experts believe either Greb, Tunney, or Tom Gibbons, the leading American light heavyweights, capable of lifting the world's title held by Battling Siki, who acquired it by knocking out Carpentier. The Sen-gale is still recognized in this country as the champion despite the ruling of French authorities depriving him of the title because of alleged improper conduct. Reports have been current that he intends to seek several bouts in the United States during the summer.

Leonard's Many Rivals

Benny Leonard faces several strong contenders in the lightweight ranks, including Lew Tendler, of Philadelphia; Sailor Freedman, and Charley White, both of Chicago. But the fact that he has previously conquered all these inclines critics to the opinion that he will continue to remain supreme.

The suggestion has been made frequently that Leonard, however, may find difficulty keeping inside the lightweight limit of 135 pounds and eventually be compelled to seek honors in the welter-weight division. Although he failed last summer in an attempt to take this title from Jack Britton, losing to the veteran on a foul, Leonard would be a formidable opponent for Walker, who captured the championship from Britton. Dave Shade, of California, and Andy Thomas, of New York, are other top-ranking welterweights.

joint meetings and recently the city fathers were invited to be present at a conference which went on record as being determined to out the Capital right on the main again in the amateur world. Speakers at this meeting declared this to be the first real move of its kind for many years. Mayor Plant and two city controllers were present. The association is giving in its constitution and will be civic in its administration as the Mayor and both controllers stated in their speeches. The reasons that prompted them to entrust the amateur organizations with the control of the parks was that the citizens bore the cost of the upkeep and for this reason the community as a whole should have the use thereof. Representatives were present at the meeting to boost the claims of football (rugby and soccer), baseball, bicycle riding and track athletics in general.

British Columbia Produces Milk

The highest quality canned milk produced in Canada at this time is Pacific Milk. It is exceptionally rich in cream and butterfat, which saves a great deal of shortening when one is baking cakes.

It is the high quality of the fresh milk, supplied by the famous dairy herds of the Fraser Valley, that is responsible for the goodness of this British Columbia product. Our improved process only retains the natural goodness and flavor which nature gives the fresh milk.
