

The "Gentler Sex" Take Up Squirming

We can think of one or two wrestling terms that will need revision if the gals go in for the sport. Bobbie and Georgie, Los Angeles lassies, have been training for months and are ready for combat. Hair-pulling is definitely out.

BASKETBALL LAST NIGHT

Grotto Overwhelmed Kaiens in Senior League 43 to 21

Senior League—Grotto, 43; Kaiens, 21.

Ladies' League—Cardinals 14; Comets, 5.

Intermediate League—Merchants 28; Warriors, 16.

Junior League—Rovers, 15; Boy Scouts, 12.

At the Auditorium last night a good bunch of basketball was played before a fair crowd of fans. The winning teams, however, had things mostly their own way.

In the Senior game the first half was close. The Kaiens took the lead first but missed several easy shots as did the Grotto who tried too many long ones. Occasionally they hit their stride and showed some fast basketball with first one team taking the lead and then the other to make the first half even, ending 14 to 11 in favor of the Kaiens.

The Grotto hit their stride in the second half to go ahead of the Kaiens whose defence began to weaken. The boys representing the Grotto used short snappy passes, different from the usual style, to make several successive baskets near the latter part of the game and clinched it 43-21.

Kaiens—Unger 10, Cros, 5, Mitchell 4, Irvine 2, Tobey, Scott—21. Grotto—Ratchford 12, V. Menzies, Currie, McNulty 2, Hurst Hunt 21, Gurvich 8-43.

Ladies' League

In the Ladies' League the Cardinals again defeated the Comets who had their strongest team out for the first time in several games. Although the score was tied in the first half the Cardinals broke loose in the second to play nice combination and win 14-5.

Comets—Irvine 1, Steen, Morgan 2, Dickens, Smith 2-5.

Cardinals—Lowe 6, Brochu, Rivett, Gilchrist 4, Stone 4, Kirkevsky, Webster—14.

Intermediate League

The Intermediate game was rather one-sided in the first half when the Merchants took on a big lead right from the start. The Warriors speeded things up after the interval to take down their opponents' lead several points. However the Merchants finally won out 28-16. This was their fifth win, putting them at the top for the first time.

Warriors—Comadina 4, Hickey 2, Gillis 4, Antonelli 4, Fitzpatrick 2, Forbes—16.

Merchants—F. Dingwell 1, Pierce 12, Hunt 7, Ross 2, E. Dingwell, Wendle 6-28.

Junior League

The Junior tussle was a very close affair. The Rovers had the extra punch to win over the Scouts 15-12.

Scouts—Davies 6, Viereck 4, Miller, Campbell 2, Gillies, Dominato, Nelson—12.

Rovers—Greer, Ivanson 4, Willis-croft 5, Armstrong 6, McMeekin, McRae—15.

POP WARNER GOING EAST

Veteran Chief Coach at Stanford University to Take Up Similar Duties at Temple

PALO ALTO, Dec. 7.—Glen (Pop) Warner, for ten years head football coach at Stanford University, has resigned in order to accept a similar post at Temple University in Philadelphia. He will take up his new duties in the east next spring. He has signed a five-year contract with Temple.

Ernie Nevers is being boomed as Warner's successor at Stanford. It was denied yesterday that seven of Stanford's freshmen players would follow Warner to Temple.

SPORT CHAT

A motion picture, with the Pacific Northwest woods as the background, with a swimming race in it, is announced for Helene Madison, former champion woman swimmer, who returned recently to her home in Seattle. "Her friends will see something more than just a record-breaking swimmer, too, when they see her in pictures," G. Roy Sumpter said. Sumpter, a representative of the Aubrey Kennedy Pictures Corporation, said his company had taken over Ivan Kahn's contract with Miss Madison, by which she would make six pictures during the coming two years.

Tod Morgan, former world's junior lightweight champion, won a decision over Albie Davies, in a 10-round main event of a card presented by the Victoria Boxing Club before about 1000 fans. Jumbo Davies, brother of Albie, got the nod over Frankie Holland in the six-round semi-wind up. In a special event over four rounds Frankie Neel, formerly of Prince Rupert, and Wing Hay fought to a fast draw. Dave Barr and Morris Graham, two Victoria boys fighting at 115 pounds, went three rounds to a draw, while in another Victoria preliminary Scotty Maitland kaye-ed Bobby Miller in the fourth and last round. Danny Pastroe won the verdict over Kid McCoy.
