

COTTISH HERE FOR OVERHAUL

Vessel That Was Built In Prince Rupert After Two Years—Took on Coal at Moji

After an absence of two years during which she has visited many ports, the Prince Rupert, built steamer Canadian Scottish, Capt. Hocking, arrived last evening at six o'clock and this morning went into drydock for a general cleaning and painting. She came across the Pacific from Moji in ballast after taking a cargo of British Columbia lumber to Yokohama and Kobe and sailing at Moji. She was met at Triple Island by Capt. McAskeen and piloted to port.

The trip across the Pacific was eventful except for a severe gale off the Aleutian Islands which delayed the vessel somewhat. On leaving Moji the ship just missed the typhoon which swept that part of the Japanese coast.

The Scottish was coaled at Moji in the picturesque manner peculiar to that port. The fuel passed from hand to hand of long line of workers in small baskets, the work resembling somewhat the efforts of the community work of the bees in a hive. Many of the workers are women, some with babies on their backs. They work industriously and never let up until the ship's bunkers are filled.

Capt. Hocking before leaving here two years ago was presented by the Prince Rupert Rotary Club with some samples of Northern British Columbia spruce and other woods. These he was able to place to advantage in Australia before the members of the Chambermen's Association, the organization through which practically all the buying in Australia is done.

The Canadian Scottish will be in port three or four days and will then go to Vancouver and other ports in the south to load lumber for the Orient.

THIS year the citizens of Victoria B. C., celebrated the eightieth birthday of this garden city and for three days beginning with the twenty-fourth of May the Queen had been chosen and with her maid of honor had travelled to neighboring cities inviting her sisters and brothers from Nanaimo, Vancouver and New Westminster, and her cousins from Seattle, Bellingham and Portland to join in a three day frolic in her delightful gardens. The neighboring cities responded to her bidding to the extent of sending their Mayors and hundreds of their populace to take part in the springtime revelry.

The initial ceremony of the three day fete was performed when Mrs. Walter C. Nichol, wife of the Lieutenant Governor of the province of British Columbia placed a beautiful floral wreath on the handsome bronze statue of Queen Victoria which stands before the parliament buildings, in the name of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. The landing of the May Queens from H.M.C.S. Patrician followed this ceremony, a tender bearing their Majesties to the broad stone steps leading directly to the parliament buildings. Here they were given the freedom of the city by Mayor Maynard and were crowned by His Honor the Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia.

Then came the Grand Parade, entered into by almost every automobile in the city and participated in by every public spirited firm and individual of Victoria Bellingham Wash., Nanaimo, and Esquimalt semi-picturesque floats and the recently inaugurated Canadian Pacific motor ferry plying between Vancouver Island and the former city gave hundreds of Americans an opportunity to enjoy a real twenty fourth of May celebration.

During the three days many sports events were arranged and on the Thursday and Friday evenings elaborate balls were given in the armories and at the Empress Hotel. Amid the historical surroundings of Beacon Hill, where as the name implies beacon fires were built in the early days for the guidance of sailors off the Island coast, the picturesquely Frolic Pageant was staged on Friday. The Passing of the Pessimist was the title given this much heralded event which portrayed the indictment and reformation of many types of civic grouch.

Saturday, as other days, witnessed band concerts given throughout the city streets from early morning until late at night. A home-made circus and regatta provided matinee entertainment at the Gorge and picturesque night attack by Indians staged in natural surroundings recalled very vividly the days of Vancouver Island and brought to civic carnival of brilliant splendour when of the Pacific Cities paid homage to the memory of the royal name sake, Victoria the Good.
