Guide to Correspondents
The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.
Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication, but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.
Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

NEW BOOK PUBLISHED

Well Known Vancouver Lady Author of Novel Dealing With Canadian Life
Mrs. Irene Moody, well known Vancouver lady, has just published a new book which is attracting wide attention. The Canadian Bookman says of it: "Delphine of the Eighties" is the most important novel of its kind since the publication in 1908 of 'Anne of Green Gables.'

Mrs. Irene Moody

Vancouver woman who has written new book. "The heroine is a girl, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. James Avery, the husband an Englishman and the wife of French descent but both immigrants from the Isle of Guernsey. "Two faults, if faults they be, may be found in the story, it stirs one's feelings too frequently and certain of the characters appear too perfect. But it is well to have ideal characters placed before us occasionally in fiction, lest we forget in this life of struggle and misfortune to strive to attain the ideal."

REICHSTAG IN SESSION

New Chancellor Von Schleicher Meets German House For First Time
BERLIN, Dec. 7.—With the political air in Germany still very much unsettled, General Kurt von Schleicher, newly appointed chancellor, met the Reichstag for the first time yesterday. Some political observers expected that the new cabinet would be overthrown with a non-confidence vote while in other quarters it was believed that von Schleicher, following the example of former Chancellor von Papen on one occasion, might dissolve the Reichstag immediately following the opening formalities.
