NEW OFFICERS
WAR VETERANS

Leo Connor Elected President at Annual Meeting Last Night—Reports Are Received

Leo Connor was elected president of the Great War Veterans' Association at the general meeting of the association held last night in the new headquarters on Third Ave. W. E. Denning is retiring from the presidency but will act on the executive.

The list of new officers for the ensuing six months is as follows:

Honorary president, Col. G. W. Peck V.C., D.S.O.

Honorary vice-president, Major John McGregor, V.C.

President, Leo Connor.

First vice-president, Sgt. S. L. Warrior.

Second vice-president, T. W. Silversides.

Executive: W. E. Denning, S. A. Bird, W. B. Waldorf, Sgt. J. Jepson and John May.

Trustees: Dr. J. A. West, H. L. Landry and Sidney Bird.

President Reports

W. E. Denning, the retiring president, who was in the chair, gave a resume of the association's activities during the past six months and spoke of the good work done on behalf of the returned men.

Concluding, he stated that he would be unable to stand for the office of president for the next six months.

Alex. Mackenzie, secretary, read the auditor's report which showed that the association was in good financial standing in spite of the fact that $12,000 had been spent on the new building.
