POLYTECHNIC WORK ANYOX ORGANIZED

Large List of Instructors and Many Will Take up Night Studies

ANYOX, Oct. 10.—Enrollment in the classes of the Northern British Columbia Polytechnic Institute as set for Anyox, began on Monday, when R. Armour, the local representative, called intending students and appointed instructors together in Recreation Hall, and dealt fully with all matters pertaining to the classes and the policy of the Institute.

The list of instructors secured by Mr. Armour is a splendid one, all being well qualified to teach the subjects allotted to them, and a large number will undoubtedly take advantage of the opportunity to improve their knowledge of the work in which they are engaged. A list of instructors follows: fancy work, Mrs. J. Weir; dressmaking, Mrs. W. Simpson; copper smelting and flotation, A. C. Halferdahl; geology, G. Wiles; mineralogy, L. H. Wenerstrom; chemistry, Gregg Thompson; book-keeping and accounting, L. J. Wrisberg; commercial law, geography and salesmanship, F. E. Gigot; mechanical drawing, R. H. Cutler; mechanical engineering, R. Armour; free hand drawing, R. Barr; high school work, R. H. Manzer; mathematics and English for foreigners, H. D. Southam; French, P. Stevenard; first aid, Fred Graham; carpentry, T. Roberts; electrical, A. D. Hotson.

ANYOX LOCALS

The Elks opened the fall amusement season with a big dance at the week-end, which was largely attended and enjoyed by the throng who took advantage of the opportunity to amuse themselves by the dance route between the hours of nine and two. These affairs of the antlered herd are always successful, a committee of energetic brothers making it there business to see that everybody attending has a good time. The supper was voted excellent, and the musicians freely complimented on their playing. The orchestra consisted of: piano, Mrs. J. E. Swanson; violin, G. Liddell; saxaphone, A. B. Giffen; drums, E. J. Waterman.

The newly organized brotherhood of Moose are out to shine in connection with Anyox social affairs, and will stage a big dance in the near future, which they promise will be the best yet. This new acquisition to the fraternal institutions of the town will undoubtedly help to keep the wolf of social inanition off the doorstep this winter, a circumstance which will be appreciated by the majority of people in Anyox.

There was born to Dr. and Mrs. Whelan, at Anyox hospital, a daughter; to Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Cutler, at Anyox hospital, a daughter.

Moro Girl Causes Trouble by Refusing to Follow Custom of Forebears

MANILLA, Oct. 10.—Hadaiya is a Moro girl. Customs and religious rituals in Moroland did not permit her the enjoyment of a happy romantic life as would have been ordinarily her's as a birthright. She was in love with Lahaman, a young Moro from another tribe, and vowed to marry.

True to her promise Hadaiyr, in the summer of 1922, fled from the paternal home to her lover and was married. The ire of her parents and fellow tribesmen was aroused and enmity grew between her tribe and that of her husband. But the marriage had already taken place, and the best that could be done was to demand a rich dowry from the family and tribe of Lahaman. Demand was made for that dowry, else Hadaiya should be returned to her home and abandon her husband. But the dowry was not forthcoming.

The tribesmen took the law into their own hands and as a result two men were killed and now three convicted of the murder have gone to jail for terms of 36, 24 and 12 years respectively.
