LOCAL NEWS NOTES

J. W. Tibbetts, formerly of this city, is now working at Britannia Mines.

City accounts up to September 22 totalling $5,942.95 were passed for payment by the council last night.

D. Gibb was assessed $5 in the police court this morning for allowing goats to run at large contrary to the Pound bylaw.

J. Naylor, of P. Burns Co., Ltd. local staff, Mrs. Naylor and child sailed by the Prince George last night for Vancouver on a holiday trip.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Johnson of Smith Island are sailing for the south by the Princess Alice this afternoon bound for Arnes, Manitoba.

Martin Olsen, charged with intoxication, forfeited bail of $50 when he failed to appear in the police court this morning to answer to the charge.

A recommendation from the Board of Works that a street light be placed at the west end of Hays Creek bridge was adopted by the city council last night.

The Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. pleaded guilty in the police court this morning to a charge of operating a motor vehicle without a number plate and was fined $5.

Roger G. Monteith of the Arthur Coles real estate and insurance firm, Victoria, who has been in the city for the past few days, is returning south by the steamer Cardena this afternoon.

Patsy Mazzei pleaded guilty in the police court this morning to charges of furious driving and operating a motor vehicle without license. He was fined $20 and $5 on the respective counts.

J. F. Stamford, brother of W. L. Stamford of Digby Island, sailed last night by the steamer Prince George for Victoria after having spent the summer on the Queen Charlotte Islands with a forestry survey party.

James Bowe, charged with unlawfully wounding D. Seguin at Stewart, elected for speedy trial before Judge Young this morning. The trial will take place on October 3. W. E. Fisher appeared for the crown and L. W. Patmore is representing accused.

A report from the city engineer stating that it would require 350 feet of pipe and would cost $100 to give water connection to the residence of J. Sherman on Summit Avenue as applied for was received by the city council last night and referred to the Board of Works.

Tommy Atkins, charged with stealing a banjo valued at $125 from Charles Prevost, Indian, elected for jury trial on coming up before Judge Young in the County Court this morning and his case will be heard at the next session of the Supreme Court Assizes here.

Fred Miggins and James Hunter were each fined $5 in the police court this morning for operating motor vehicles without lights. Both pleaded not guilty but were convicted. Inspector T. W. S. Parsons of the provincial police appeared as a witness in the Miggins' case and Provincial Constable Ponder testified against Hunter.

The Canadian halibut schooner Ingred H., Capt. Charles Lindquist, which broke down on account of engine trouble between here and Ketchikan last Thursday afternoon after having left for the Alaskan port to take on ice and bait Wednesday evening, was towed by the U.S. revenue cutter Cygan into Ketchikan, where repairs were effected with little loss of time. The craft cleared for the halibut banks from Ketchikan last night.

Telkwa's side of the case in the recent intertown football series played here is given in the following account of the games as published in the Omineca Herald:

"The redoubtable Telkwa football team met its Waterloo at Prince Rupert last week, being defeated by Ocean Falls 4-1, and by Prince Rupert 7-1. The defeats, however, seem not so tremendous when the true facts are known. The Telkwa team was severely weakened by the absence of Noonan as goalie and D. McDonald as centre-half. Chettleburg still being convalescent from a recent illness, was unable to play. The changes necessitated left weak spots and the opposing teams played to these. Then again, the field was one of those hill and dale affairs, and only those fully acquainted with its characteristics could play upon it to advantage. However, even in defeat the Telkwa boys were victorious inasmuch as again and again they drew the applause of the spectators for their gameness and the way they forced the play. The opposing teams were quite thankful when the whistle sounded for full time."

Frank P. Slavin of Victoria sent a telegram to Jack Dempsey congratulating him on defeating Luis Firpo. The message also contained the advice that Dempsey retire from the ring an undefeated champion. Part of Slavin's message was as follows:

"I a one-time champion, who pioneered and gave my might and courage towards bringing boxing to the popular stage it is at today, and interested the wealthy and respectable class of citizens to view it as it is now, a pastime of the most courageous, send a line of congratulation to gladden you.

"Jack, you must excuse me taking liberties. I want to give you a little advice. It is from an old-headed sport. You have verified your claim to the distinction of being the best man in the world today. There are other lines of business that you can invest your time and savings from your contests in and make them keep you without fighting. Take my advice, retire and let us have a never-beaten champion, who never said 'quits.' It is only a matter of time if you stay at the game. Firpo or someone else will be heard of again; keep that in mind."
