All Benefits But Nothing In Return.

The American fishermen, some of them at any rate, get all the benefits of this port and give nothing in return. They are given practically all the privileges here that Canadians get and besides that they get about two cents a pound more for their fish than Canadian boats and as soon as they get their checks they make off for an American port to spend their money. This condition of affairs cannot continue. We do not mind co-operating. We are willing to give and take, but it cannot be all on one side. Canadian boats are being discriminated against without any corresponding advantage. Those American boats that sell their catches here and take away every dollar they receive will find that while Canadians are long suffering, a little slow, perhaps, and friendly and willing to do business at all times, yet there is a limit and that limit is very near being reached just now.

It is to the advantage of American fishermen to sell their catches here and it is to the advantage of Canadians to encourage this. At the same time we cannot sit idly by and see our own fishing vessels put out of business just for the advantage of the American boats, nor can we give the American fishing boats all the advantage of a Canadian port without getting some quid pro quo. It will be for Canadian statesmen to consider the situation carefully and take such steps as are considered necessary to protect Canadian interests.

Equal Education For All People.

Much interest was taken in the report of an address by Sir Henry Newbolt published in the Daily News Saturday. It is evident that Sir Henry is a democrat of the type that looks to a day when there will be a much greater degree of social equality than there is today. He does not see why education should unfit a person for work. He seems to be of opinion that the man who digs ditches is just as much entitled to all the advantages of life as is the man who studies law, medicine, theology or who happens to be head of a big business. The tendency is undoubtedly in that direction. The time is coming when there will be much greater equality of payment for services than is the custom today. There will perhaps be rewards for special services, but all work is honorable and should be well rewarded. The men and women who should not be paid are those who give no service.

The motto of the Prince of Wales is "I serve." A good prince serves his country and works hard at it. High position provides wider scope for effort and should never be an excuse for laziness.

Oriental Problem Before Government.

The Oriental problem is being taken up by the government of Canada and negotiations are going on with Japan with a view to an amicable settlement without abrogating the agreement between that country and Great Britain. It is to be assumed that if no arrangement can be arrived at otherwise, then the Anglo-Japanese treaty will have to be abrogated. While we all admire the energy, industry and patriotism of the Japanese people we object to an invasion of our country by them for a number of reasons which have often before been stated. The chief of these is the economic pressure from people who have a different standard of living which causes the white workers to have to compete unfairly. The western representatives in the House of Commons understand these conditions fully and are stating them frankly and forcibly. The member for this district is one of those who are on the job in this respect. Mr. Stork was one of those who led the fight for the reduction of the Japanese fishing licenses with outstanding success. We believe that the people of the west are with him, with the exception only of those who have interests at stake which may suffer from the elimination of Oriental labor in the fishing industry.

Immigration Already On The Increase.

Whatever one may think of the immigration policy of the Dominion government and especially in relation to the colonization company which has been formed to bring people to this country, there is no doubt that the very fact that the government favors bringing in people is already having its effect here. More people are coming than came last year by at least fifty per cent and the increase is very largely from Great Britain so far.

With a country so big as ours we must have more people to fill it, and it is to be hoped the Dominion will steadily but surely attract desirable residents and especially farmers with a view to settling up our waste lands.

Severe Kidney Trouble

Mrs. F. Rinehart, Campbellville, Ont., writes:

"I had trouble with my kidneys and very frequent urination. This was followed by pains which at times were very severe. The doctor said I had inflammation of the bladder and that an operation might be necessary. To this I refused, and began using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. From the first few doses I felt the benefit. The pains left, urination was corrected, and I have had no recurrence of these ailments."

CANADIAN SCENES IN "CONCEIT" AT WESTHOLME

Straight-Away Modern Drama With Real People in the Characters

"Conceit," is the title of the picture to be shown at the Westholme tonight. The author, Michael Phillips, has concocted a screen story that at once arrests the interest of the spectator and moves on swiftly with an action that gains momentum as the play unfolds.

"Conceit," of course deals with that element of mental imperfection that is so often found in men and women whose inflated opinion of themselves exceed their true worth. But the subject is not handled with the spirit of levity. Instead, it is a straight-away modern drama with a variety of scenes, character and action that are most refreshing. The hero of the plot is not a gilded saint and the villain is not a cloven-hoofed fiend. They are just men with all the faults and virtues usually found in the normal average person.

The action of the story takes place equally in a large city and in British Columbia, the latter scenes being all actually photographed amid the gorgeous scenic beauties of the "Switzerland of America," Lake Louise and the International Park, Banff Canada.

"BLOOD AND SAND" IS DUE GOOD FRIDAY

One of Biggest Pictures of the Day to be Shown Here at Week End

"Blood and Sand" is the story of a bull fighter—not bull-fighting. Note the distinction. There are features of bull-fighting not pleasing to Canadian audiences—but you do not see them in "Blood and Sand." You are given all the verve, color and thrill of combat in the bull-ring, with Valentino in front of a wild bull, minus everything not in accord with Canadian ideals. Retained in every respect are the colorful country scenes, the life in the Seville streets, the crowds in the cafes, just as Ibanez so grippingly portrayed them.

It's a story that has a thousand points of interest-contact. Picture patrons admire Valentino as a lover. Many critics called him the greatest lover the screen has ever seen. In "Blood and Sand," you see him in love with two different kinds of women, you see the warm, tender love, the passionate, surging love. And the women he loves are Lila Lee and Nita Naldi, two types as different as night is from day.

When the bull-fighters stride into the arena the crowd of thousands rises and cheers; they thrill when Valentino and his banderilleros do graceful evolutions before the bull; they lose themselves when the star himself engages at close quarters with the vicious beast.

There are human interest scenes where Gallardo is a ragged youth, when he is winning his first boy's bull-fight, when he is courting the sweet Carmen, when he pours into his old mother's lap the bandana full of coins from his first successful venture as a torero.

Story of Modern Spain

"Blood and Sand" is not a costume or historical picture. It is a story of modern Spain. You see the colorful costumes of the bull-fighters, of the rural dwellers, of the poorer classes—but the ideas and theme of the tale is strictly modern. The costumes are not an integral part of the story, but serve to provide splendid color.

SOLOIST AT WESTHOLME

Mrs. H. L. Campbell to Sing at Each Performance Tonight and Tomorrow

Tonight and tomorrow night the Westholme Theatre will supply an extra attraction to patrons. They have made arrangements for Mrs. H. L. Campbell to sing at each performance.

Mrs. Campbell is known to concertgoers here but for those who have not heard her, it may be mentioned that she has a very fine soprano voice which she uses with great effect. Before leaving Victoria she was known as one of the coming singers of the capital city. She filled an engagement at one of the theatres for a week with great success. She has a most pleasant personality and will be a great addition to this evening's entertainment at the Westholme.

WIFE AGAINST WIFE

"You stole my husband's love. And I am going to show your husband what you are."

And strangely, the innocent woman was unable to convince her husband that the other woman's suspicions were unfounded—that suspicion had so warped her judgment, and his, that the flimsiest circumstances seemed like veritable truths.

"Wife Against Wife," the screen attraction at the mid-week show is a unique story, a painting of strange characters and situations, but an intense story of love that lost—and won.

CANNERY FOREMAN ARRIVES BUTEDALE

Jack Killington, formerly with the Western Packers, retained by the Canadian Fishing Co.

BUTEDALE, Mar. 26.—John Killington, for the past four years cannery foreman for the Western Packers and North Pacific Packers at Butedale and Margaret Bay, has arrived here from Vancouver where he spent the winter. He will be foreman for the Canadian Fishing Co., at the local plant. Mr. Killington is one of the pioneers of the cannery business on the coast and is an expert machinist. He holds many patents on canning machinery, his latest being a device which is used with the Iron Chink in cleaning fish ready for the cans. Mr. Killington was married during the winter.

PARING DOWN COSTS OAK BAY AND SAANICH

Rates Struck at 30.4 and 25 Mills Respectively for Municipalities

VICTORIA, Mar. 26.—"We must pare down everything," was the remark of one of the Saanich councillors which has been echoed and re-echoed in the council of Victoria and Oak Bay. The new Saanich tax rate is 25 mills on the dollar and Oak Bay 30.4. These rates have been secured only by cutting the expenses of all departments to the lowest possible. Oak Bay's assessment has been reduced by $100,000, causing a slight increase in the mill rate.
