MME. SARAH BERNHARDT GREATEST OF ACTRESSES ENDS WONDERFUL CAREER

in Paris, and at the age of 12 was sent to the Grand Champ Convent, Versailles, where she made her debut in a little miracle play given by the children. Even at this early age, the pale and stately child is said to have displayed the fits of temper which were characteristic of her stage career.

After a year or two at the convent, she conceived a passionate desire to become a nun. To this her mother resorted unqualified opposition, and suggested a theatrical career instead.

"She's too thin to be an actress," said her god-father. "Let her be a nun."

"I won't be an actress," little Sarah categorically exclaimed.

Early Career

But fate had determined otherwise, and at the age of 14 Bernhardt was sent to a conservatory. At the end of the first year she won second prize for tragedy. A subscription among the players at the Comedie Francaise enabled her to spend another year at the conservatory, and upon the completion of this she carried off second prize for comedy. Her first public appearance was at the Comedie Francaise in August, 1862. She took a minor part without any marked success.

Five years later she emerged from laborious obscurity with her first definite success as Cordelia in a French translation of "King Lear" at the Odéon, then as Queen in Victor Hugo's "Ruy Blas," and above all as Zanzett in Franeois Coppee's "Le Passant," which she played in 1869.

Became a Nurse

Then came the Franco-Prussian war. Bernhardt increased her popularity by becoming a war nurse. In 1871 she was made a

Six-Year-Old Had Bronchitis Every Winter

Bronchitis generally begins with chills, followed by fever and a harsh, dry, hacking cough. There is a raising of phlegm, which at first is of a light color, but, as the trouble progresses it becomes of a yellowish or greenish color and is sometimes streaked with blood.

All those who are troubled with bronchitis will find in Dr. Wood's Pine Syrup a remedy that will stimulate the bronchial organs, subdue the inflammation, soothe the irritated parts, and loosen the phlegm.

Mrs. Oliver C. LePage, South Rustico, P. E. I., writes: "My little six-year-old girl had very bad attacks of bronchitis every winter. In the evening and during the night, she would have fever and choke up, and had a wheezing in her chest. We tried several cough medicines, but they never seemed to do her any good. A neighbor advised us to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, which we did, and after she had taken two bottles she got perfectly well."

Price 35c and 66c a bottle; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Work in War

During the World War Bernhardt made several trips to the French front and gave a number of performances for the soldiers. This, she declared, was the "incomparable event" of her life.

The memoirs of Bernhardt sedulously avoid any mention of her marital experience, and only in the middle of the bulky volume does she mention casually the existence of a son. One of her critics declared that "she never seemed to find the man who could master her."

"There was in her," he continued, "the making of a super-villain, and although she met Victor Hugo and the greatest intellectual potentates of her time, the super-man, who alone could hold her, never entered her life."

Years ago a jealous rival of her theatrical career published a satire entitled "The Story of Sarah Bernhardt," in which the "love affairs of the actress, real and alleged, were shamelessly laid bare. Bernhardt resorted to the horse-whip to punish the author.

Mrs. Hopkin's Devil's Food

Strangely enough since the mention of "Devil's Food" Cake, a great many requests have come in. We print Mrs. Hopkin's because it is exceptionally good.

Take 1 cup brown sugar, 1/2 cup butter and the yolks of 2 eggs. Beat these until real light. Add 1/2 cup grated chocolate which has been dissolved in 2 tablespoons of boiling water. Then add 2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1-3 cup Pacific milk, 1-3 cup water in which has been mixed 1/2 teaspoon of soda. Bake in slow oven. Use the egg whites for the icing.

We are grateful to Mr. Hopkin and thank her on behalf of the women who have asked for her recipe.

Invaded England, receiving a tremendous ovation, then toured Denmark and Russia. Next she came to America, where her success was instantaneous. She toured the United States and Canada eight times in some 35 years, and appeared several times in the larger cities of South America.

Breaking with the theatrical syndicates, which denied her the use of their theatres when she refused to come to their terms, she was compelled to appear on one of her American tours in tents, convention halls and armories. She vowed never to appear in a theatre again, but of subsequent visits she came to terms with the syndicates.

The great actress was a grandmother when she last appeared in America, and had suffered amputation of her right leg. Upon her arrival in New York, October, 1916, it was evident to the group of friends and admirers who gathered to welcome her that she walked with extreme difficulty.

The injury to her knee, which compelled the amputation of her leg in 1915 was attributed to many different causes. For years before the amputation the plays in which she appeared were altered to hide the fact that she was able to walk only with great difficulty. The operation was performed in Paris, and upon her recovery she re-appeared on the stage to receive the greatest ovation of her career. Her manager announced that henceforth she would interpret only motionless roles.

Seventy-three Indians from various parts of the district were entertained by Andy Buddy at a dance in the Omiceca Hotel last week.

Frank Eckert, of this place, has been missing for over a week and his disappearance is causing considerable uneasiness among his friends and relatives. No clue is apparent as to his sudden departure.

HAZELTON

Rev. T. E. Ferrier, superintendent of Methodist Missions, returned last week to Brandon after having attended the funeral of the late Mrs. H. C. Winch.

H. M. Beech, of Ottawa, was here last week inquiring about the airplane service to the Omiceca country. It was too early in the season to make a flight so he decided to go to Vanderhoof and go in that way. Mr. Beech was accompanied by P. O. Ranger, also of Ottawa.

Richard Smith, son of Mrs. M. E. Smith, M.L.A., has gone into Fifth Cabin on the Yukon Telegraph line.
