Abraham Martin Honored

Monument to First Scottish Settler,
First King's Pilot On the St.
Lawrence, and First Farmer
On the Plains of Abraham Unveiled.

At Quebec recently the Hon.
Athanasius David, Provincial Secretary in the Quebec Cabinet, officiated at the unveiling of a monument erected by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company in memory of Abraham
Martin, who was the first known Canadian of Scottish descent and the first King's pilot on the St. Lawrence River. The Plains of Abraham received their name from him, he receiving a grant of the land from Champlain in 1617. The unveiling of the monument, a handsome granite shaft seven feet high surmounted by a globe supported by thistles, was an important event and was attended by a large number of prominent citizens and political representatives.

The sturdy pioneer is further acclaimed by Andrew Patterson, who says:—

ABRAHAM MARTIN.

Auld Scotland many a hero boasts From John o' Groats to Wigtown's coasts,
Both Lowland lads and Highland hosts

That wear the tartan;
But now another seeks your toasts,
Old Abram Martin.

But what pretence has he to fame,
That we should celebrate his name,
And thus in stone and bronze proclaim

His style and story?
A threefold plea can Martin claim
To all this glory.

The first of Scotia's sons was he
To cross Atlantic's stormy sea—
True pioneers of liberty,
Giving their best

That this Dominion fair might be Blessing and blest.

See in his wake the glorious band,
MacKenzies, Frasers, foremost stand MacDonalds, too, in high command,
And James McGill,

Mountstephen and Strathcona grand—
'Twould pages fill.

The first was he to till this plain,
Now sacred to that fierce campaign
When heroes fell, but not in vain
In glorious strife.

O Canada, thine was the gain,
Renewed thy life!

He was the first to mark the tides,
The rocks, the shoals St. Lawrence hides—
The mariner in him confides

And bans his fears;
"The ship," he cries, "in safety ride
When Martin steers."

Though fate "mong strangers cast his lot
He ne'er forgot he was a Scot,
Thrifty and shrewd he was, I wot,
Canny and gaudy,

Proud of the nickname that he got,
"Abram in 'Ecosais."

Let us whate'er our race or creed,
This ancient Scot's example heed,
And give the best that's in our breed
That ours may be

A Canada in word and deed High-souled and free.

—A. Patterson.
