ARMISTICE DAY BANQUET GREAT

One Hundred and Fifty Persons Filled St. Regis Cafe to Capacity — Speeches Were Feature

A list of splendid speeches, a fine program of vocal and instrumental numbers and a bounteous spread featured the Great War Veterans' Association's annual Armistice Day banquet which took place in the St. Regis Cafe on Saturday evening. The affair was voted by all those present to be one of the most successful and enthusiastic ever held in the city. The stirring speeches were greatly appreciated by the 150 persons present who filled the capacity of the banquet hall.

The speakers of the evening were Archdacon G. A. Rix, Fred Stork, M.P., Mayor Newton and United States Consul E. A. Wakefield. They excelled themselves. President W. E. Denming occupied the chair.

Contributing to the musical program were the band of the 102nd. Northern B.C. Regiment, the Westholme Orchestra; H. Fletcher, S. K. Campbell, William Murray, Dave Gay and Peter Black, vocal soloists, and A. A. Easson with a saxophone solo. The accompanists of the evening were Mr. Snell of the steamer Prince Rupert and W. Vaughan Davies.

An innovation on the program was the singing of old time war choruses by the guests assembled. This departure proved popular and was entered into enthusiastically by all present.

The banquet opened with the toast to the King and closed about midnight with the singing of Auld Lang Syne and the National Anthem.

The committee in charge comprised Joseph Fleming, chairman, C. L. Youngman and Sidney Smith.

HUNTERS BROUGHT BACK SOME GEESE AND MANY DUCKS

Two Local Parties Spent Thanksgiving Day at Georgetown Shooting

There were two parties out to Georgetown yesterday after geese and ducks and each brought some home. A party in the Lois M. left early Sunday morning and returned last night. They were Alex. McRae, J. Lindsay, Harry Welford and Don Crerar. They managed to get two geese and a dozen ducks and report having had a most enjoyable time. On the way out they got rather a bad dusting off Jap Point but the staunch launch carried them safely through.

W. Williscroft, W. Reid, C. W. Kirkendall and Fred Roberts also hunted at Georgetown and neighborhood going over on George Bryant's launch Harla. They secured good bags of geese and ducks.

Sport Chat

With the opening basketball games of the season set down for next Friday evening, this week will see the formal commencement of the winter indoor sporting season. In view of the fact that the venue of the game—the Elks' Home—is very convenient to the centre of the city it is expected that the matches will have better patronage this year than in seasons past. There is also good reason to believe that the quality of basketball will compare very favorably with that of past years. There will be keen interest in the progress of the competition in the various leagues and the respective teams all have enthusiastic groups of supporters. The aggregations are said to be very evenly matched.

The teams taking the floor on Friday night will be as follows:

Intermediate League — Grotto vs. Colts.

Ladies' League—Maple Leafs vs. Adanacs.

Senior—Sons of Canada vs. Colts.

To make a regular evening of it and have the formal opening even more auspicious, the League is planning on staging a dance after the games.
