"I Can Now Do My Work Without Feeling Tired"

Mrs. A. Moffatt, Roxton Falls, Que., writes:

"I suffered from a run-down system and nervous debility. I could not sleep or rest at night, and felt so weak I could not walk any distance. I took several tonics, but they only helped me while I was taking them. Mother advised me to take Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and I felt great benefit from the first box, and continued taking several boxes. Today I feel like a new woman, and am able to do my work without that dreadful tired feeling."

"The Canadian Freighter arrived here from the Orient on October 23. She went into the dry dock on Saturday, got cleaned and painted, came off last night and is now loading a cargo of 600,000 feet of lumber for the Orient. This is the first boat to make the round trip from Prince Rupert to the Orient. Her time was 2 months and 1 day. (The time cuts no figure as there are boats on the Pacific could easily double this time). Sydney finds her father and Benny in the Mott Street tenement, for the embezzier Crawshay is her father. Thereafter, she makes nightly visits to them with food and money.

Blows Whistle

Then comes the day Benny decides to make his attempt to "get Judge Trumbull," not aware of the fact that Sydney lives at his home. Benny gets to the door unobserved, fells the butler who answers the bell, and enters the hallway. There he encounters Sydney. He is determined in his purpose, so she blows the police whistle and the detectives are responding. Benny's capture means the arrest of her father. Sydney then helps Benny to escape The police suspeet her, and in trying to explain, she gives herself away.

She leaves the house and goes to Mott Street to join her father. She is trailed by detectives who take the three to jail. Meanwhile. Gordon has been making every effort to find her, and arrives in time to bring about her release. When Benny sees that the game is up, he confesses that he has forged the name of Crawshay to a check, and that Crawshay innocent. With her proven innocent and the love Gordon and the three old men. Sydney's joy is complete.

DOUBLE BILL AT THE WESTHOLME TONIGHT

There was a double bill at the Westholme last night and it will be repeated tonight. John Gilbert in "A California Romance" was a story based on the early history of that state and Lupino Lane in "A Friendly Husband" was a film comedy of unusual merit. It has to do with mother-in-law but not one of the usual type. It deals with camp life in the woods and there are all sorts of funny situations.

Solving the breakfast problem

Breakfast is the big problem these chilly mornings when the children must get off to school and Daddy must make a quick getaway to office or store. The problem is easily solved with Shredded Wheat Biscuit. It is readycooked and ready-to-eat. Two of these crisp, tasty little loaves of baked whole wheat with milk make a nourishing meal-and they are just as good for lunch and dinner as for breakfast. Pour hot milk over the Biscuit, adding a little cream and a little salt. Contains all the bran you need to promote bowel movement.
